(i) The Commission agreed that the Executive Committee would discuss the new subprogramme at its first substantive meeting in early April 2006.

(j) The Commission requested all UNECE member States together with the secretariat to provide inputs for discussion by the Executive Committee concerning the possible menu of themes to be taken up by the new Committee and their sequencing, as well as the related activities and products.

(k) The Commission noted that such discussion could facilitate the work of the new Committee at its first meeting in autumn 2006.

21. Under this item a representative of the United Nations Department of Economic and Social Affairs (UN/DESA) briefed the Commission on UN reforms, focussing on four areas: strengthening ECOSOC; establishing a Peace-building Commission; creating a Human Rights Council; and promoting system-wide coherence in normative, operational, humanitarian and environmental activities.

(d) The Commission requested the secretariat to keep the Executive Committee informed of developments regarding this reform and the inputs to be requested of regional commissions.

(d) Organizational changes in the secretariat

Member States also took note of the statement of the Executive Secretary to keep this matter under review and to implement the organizational changes in a flexible manner.

(b) The Commission requested that member States be informed of any further measures, in particular regarding staff deployment and mobility, through the Executive Committee.

and the role of the UNECE

(Agenda item 3)

(b) The Commission stressed the need to seek interlinkages between the Technical Cooperation Unit and the new subprogramme and to discuss this issue together with the UNECE technical cooperation strategy at the Executive Committee.

(c) The Commission expressed its appreciation for the work of the regional advisers and recalled that the Executive Committee will discuss their future allocation among the programmes.

(d) The Commission also took note of the technical cooperation being carried out with subregional country groupings, in keeping with previous recommendations of the Commission. It urged the secretariat to continue to reinforce such cooperation.

(e) The Commission welcomed the approval of concrete projects and project proposals by the special session of the SPECA regional advisory committee held after the international conference on subregional economic cooperation in Central Asia and the future role of SPECA.

(f) The Commission also welcomed the increased cooperation with other organizations.

(g) With regard to the next updating of the OECD Development Assistance Committee's list of main international organizations, the Commission urged its members who are also members of the DAC to support the inclusion of the UNECE.

(h) The Commission encouraged the DAC to favourably consider the inclusion of UNECE on its list of main international organizations.

Progress report on specific issues

(Agenda item 6)

(a) UNECE contribution to CSD cycles

25. The Commission noted the success of the Second Regional Implementation Forum on Sustainable Development held in December 2005. The assessment of the region's progress in implementing sustainable development commitments in the areas of energy for sustainable development, atmosphere/air pollution, climate change, industrial development and cross-cutting issues had clearly shown the different challenges and experiences of countries in the region. As all issues were linked, intersectoral cooperation at the national and international levels was considered vital to achieve further progress.

Conclusion 9

The Commission welcomed the Chairperson's summary on the second UNECE Regional Implementation Forum on Sustainable Development which will be submitted to the Fourteenth Session of the Commission on Sustainable Development (CSD) in May 2006. It expressed its hope that the outcomes of this and other regional implementation forums are well taken into account at the global level and encouraged UNECE member States to be active at the CSD.

(b) Promotion of ICT in UNECE work

26. The Commission considered this agenda item on the basis of document E/ECE/1443 "ICT applications in the UNECE work programme".

Conclusion 10

The Commission expressed appreciation for the background document (E/ECE/1443) which provided updated information on the development and use of ICT applications in the UNECE work programme and in the UNECE secretariat. It welcomed progress in this regard and emphasized the need to keep ICT issues under review.
