

PROVISIONAL PROGRAMME

Tuesday, 3 November 2020, 13:00-15:35 CET
Session 1: The right to privacy and the right to live in an informed society Session chair: Ieva Zaceste, Central Statistical Bureau of Latvia
Time	Topic
13:00 - 13:10	Welcome, opening of the meeting and adoption of the agenda (Nicola Shearman, United Kingdom Statistics Authority (UKSA) and UNECE Secretariat)
13:10 - 13:15	Introduction to the session (Ieva Zaceste, Central Statistical Bureau of Latvia)
13:15 - 13:30	The right to privacy and data protection vs. the right to be informed: Frameworks and the role of official statistics and statistical production (Dr Edina Harbinja, Aston Law)
13:30 - 13:45	Lawfulness of personal data processing from GDPR perspective (Jekaterina Macuka, Chief Data Protection Officer of Latvia)
13:45 - 14:00	Statistics and privacy and data protection EU framework. Challenges from a data driven world also in the light of the Guidance on Modernizing Statistical Legislation (Massimo Attoresi, Office of the European Data Protection Supervisor)
14:00 - 14:15	The rights to privacy and statistical information under international human rights law (Marc Titus Cebreros, Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR))
14:15 - 14:20	Data privacy vs. informed Covid-19 international response (Gabriel Gamez, United Nations Statistics Division, UNSD)
14:20 - 14:30	Short break
14:30 - 15:30	Panel discussion
15:30 - 15:35	Conclusions of the session (Ieva Zaceste, Central Statistical Bureau of Latvia)

Expert Meeting on Modernizing Statistical Legislation

3 and 5 November 2020, Geneva (virtual)

Thursday, 5 November 2020, 13:00-16:00 CET
Session 2: Data access, use and exchange through a legal lens
Session chair: Nicola Shearman, UKSA
Time	Topic
13:00 - 13:10	Welcome, introduction and summary of session 1 (Nicola Shearman, UKSA)
13:10 - 13:25	Access to administrative data – the perspective of Armenia (Anahit Safyan, Statistical Committee of Armenia)
13:25 - 13:40	Data access, use and exchange on different maturity levels (Mart Mägi, Statistics Estonia)
13:40 - 13:55	Secondary data acquisition and management in Ireland; legal, governance and relationship building issues (Adrienne Harrington and Paul Morrin, Central Statistics Office of Ireland)
13:55 - 14:20	First round of discussion (moderated by Oliver Mahoney, UKSA)
14:20 - 14:30	Short break
14:30 - 14:45	Access to privately held data and related regulation at the European Union level (Albrecht Wirthmann, Eurostat)
14:45 - 15:00	Developing live country economic indicators through payments data (Jon Hussey, Barclays Payments)
15:00 - 15:15	Experience of the National Statisticians' Data Ethics Committee (Simon Whitworth, UKSA)
15:15 - 15:25	International challenges (Julien Dupont, Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development, OECD)
15:25 - 15:50	Second round of discussion (moderated by Stephanie Turner, UKSA)
15:50 - 16:00	Conclusions of session and closing of the meeting (Nicola Shearman, UKSA)