Poverty and Equity Measurement at the World Bank and the ECA Context

Prepared by the World Bank *

Abstract

The presentation will provide a brief overview of the poverty and equity measurement and analysis activities undertaken by the World Bank, including methodological issues and links to the Bank's poverty and equity monitoring activity, corporate goals, and country dialogue on poverty/equity issues. The presentation will also discuss the complementarities across different measures, including ones used outside of the World Bank, as well as some outstanding theoretical and practical issues going forward.
