I. ACCESS TO THE PALAIS DES NATIONS

8. Before entering the Palais des Nations, delegates must collect their security badge from the Security Identification Unit, located at the visitors' entrance: Pregny Gate, 14 Avenue de la Paix. It is advisable to arrive here at least 40 minutes before the meeting is due to start in order to allow time to collect your badge and make your way to the meeting room. The Pregny gate is opposite the Red Cross ("CICR") building, approximately 300 metres uphill from the Nations gate, where the flags of UN member countries can be seen (refer to the map at appendix A).

9. The following documents should be presented to the Security Office:

- Original of the registration form
- Photo ID (e.g. passport)

10. Only delegates who previously sent their registration forms to the UNECE Statistical Division will be able to obtain their entry passes.

11. Once you have your entry pass it will be possible to re-enter the Palais des Nations from either the Nations gate, or the Pregny gate.

II. MEETING ROOM

5. The meetings on 21 – 24 April will take place in Salle XVI of the Palais des Nations (see Appendix A). The easiest way to reach Salle XVI is through door 15. After Pregny gate, continue straight to the main building and down the stairs to door 15. Inside the building turn right immediately and proceed to lift No 15. Salle XVI is on the 5th floor, on the left side of the lift.
6. In case door 15 is closed, you can enter the Palais des Nations through door 13, turn left and take lift No13 to the 5th floor.

III. FREE PUBLIC TRANSPORT IN GENEVA

7. Geneva International Airport now offers incoming passengers a free ticket for public transport. These tickets, available from a machine in the baggage collection area, allow you to use any public transport (train, tram, bus, boat) in Geneva and surrounding areas for a period of 80 minutes. Look for the machine pictured below after collecting your luggage and before walking out through the customs area.

8. Some hotels offer a free Geneva Transport Card, enabling you to use the entire Geneva public transport system free of charge throughout your stay. You should ask at the reception when checking-in at your hotel.

IV. GETTING FROM THE AIRPORT INTO GENEVA

9. The Geneva Airport is approximately four kilometres from the city centre. The train is the most efficient way to get into the city centre. Follow the signs to the airport railway station from the arrivals area. All trains leaving from the airport stop at the central Geneva-Cornavin station. The journey takes six minutes. Instructions for getting to the meeting venue from the city centre are in section IV below.
10. In addition to the train, there are buses from the airport to various parts of Geneva:

- United Nations / Office du Nations Unies (ONU) - Palais des Nations:
bus 5 (direction Hopital)- stop Nations
bus 28 (direction Jardin Botanique)- stop Appia
- Geneva city centre: bus 10 (direction Onex)

11. Taxis are readily available from the airport. They are metered, so costs will vary, but the journey from the airport into the city centre will usually cost around CHF 30.

12. Tourist and public transport information is available at the Unireso information desk in the airport arrival hall after you go through customs. More information on Geneva's free public transport initiative is available from:

- Public transport from Geneva Airport - <http://www.gva.ch/en/desktopdefault.aspx/tabid-67/>

V. TRANSPORT TO AND FROM THE PALAIS DES NATIONS

13. Geneva is a small and walkable city. It takes about 25 minutes to walk from the Cornavin train station to the Place des Nations. It will take another 10 - 15 minutes to walk from the Nations entrance, through the building to the meeting room.

14. There are two trams that go from the front (lake side) of the central Cornavin train station to the Place des Nations (the main square outside the Palais des Nations). The trams are numbered 13 or 15 and should be taken in the direction 'Nations', which is also the name of the last stop where you should get out.

15. Buses 5, 8, 14, 28, F, V, and Z serve the Place des Nations, and stop close to the Nations gate. Buses 8, 28, F, V and Z also stop near the Pregny Gate at the stop named Appia.

16. Further information such as itineraries, timetables and fares, is available on the site of the Transports Publics Genevois (<http://www.tpg.ch/>). A map of public transport routes is available at http://www.tpg.ch/cartographie/plans/decembre2007/tpg_plan_centre_ville.pdf.

17. Taxis are expensive but generally easy to find. A taxi stand is located on Avenue de la Paix, 50 metres uphill from the Nations gate. Taxis are usually available around the clock. The following direct telephone number will ensure arrival within minutes: 022 331 41 33. Taxis may not enter the UN compound - passengers will have to disembark at the Pregny or Nations gate.

VI. ACCOMMODATION

18. It is the responsibility of delegates to make their own accommodation arrangements. Given the wide variety of hotels around the city, the secretariat has not made any reservations or recommendations. There is a list of hotels that provide a preferential rate for participants in United Nations meetings available at http://www.unec.org/meetings/Hotels_pref.pdf.
