

UNITED NATIONS ECONOMIC COMMISSION FOR EUROPE
Fifty-seventh Session (7-10 May 2002)
Salle XIX

Programme – Agenda Item 4:
“Economic aspects of security in Europe”
8 May 2002

10 a.m. Morning Session

Opening address

Mr. Ján Kubiš, Secretary General, OSCE

Round Table I: An integrated policy approach to security and development

Chairperson: Ambassador Michèle Pranchère-Tomassini, Permanent Representative of Luxembourg to the United Nations Office at Geneva and Vice-Chairperson of the ECE Bureau

- H.E. Mr. Peter Trojanovic, Federal Minister for Economy and Internal Trade, Federal Republic of Yugoslavia
- Mr Andrew Fiddaman, Associate Director, The Prince of Wales International Business Leaders Forum
- Mr Patrick Hardouin, Director of Economic Affairs, North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO)
- Mr. Ivan D. Ivanov, Deputy Director, Russian Academy of Sciences, Institute of Europe
- Ms. Patricia Lewis, Director, United Nations Institute for Disarmament Research

Concluding Remarks: Ambassador Michèle Pranchère-Tomassini, Permanent Representative of Luxembourg to the United Nations Office at Geneva and Vice-Chairperson of the ECE Bureau

3 p.m. Afternoon Session

Round Table II: The sectoral dimensions of security: the ECE role

Chairperson: H.E. Mr. Lázló Miklós, Minister for Environment, Slovak Republic

- Mr. Oleg Juravlev, First Vice Minister for External Trade and Industry, Kyrgyz Republic
- Mr. Andrew Mack, Director, Human Security Centre, University of British Columbia
- Chairpersons of Principal Subsidiary Bodies of the ECE

Concluding Remarks: H.E. Mr. Lázló Miklós, Minister for Environment, Slovak Republic