The first town councilor of Almendralejo, José María Ramírez, has realized these declarations today in the morning on having been present at the act of opening of a new portal of Internet in Almendralejo.

According to Ramírez, this organization devotes to "to do exclusively accusations and not to work for the environment of the city".

Ramírez has asserted that "they only try to promote the scandal in the city, looking for his advertizing on having done accusations without foundation".

About Vinibasa he has said, that the only thing that has been done is to open sanctioning records by what "conclusions must not be extracted until there is a decision".

Finaly. Ramírez Moran has announced news related to this company that it will announce "in his moment".
