Dear Ms. Anning,

Re: Communication to the Aarhus Convention Compliance Committee concerning compliance by the United Kingdom (E&W) in relation to imposition of cross-undertakings regarding injunctions in environmental judicial review (ACCC/C/2012/65)

On 3 January 2012, the secretariat of the Convention on Access to Information, Public Participation in Decision-making and Access to Justice in Environmental Matters (Aarhus Convention) received the above communication addressed to the Compliance Committee of the Convention. The communication concerns compliance by the United Kingdom (England and Wales) with provisions of the Convention on access to justice in relation to imposition of cross-undertakings regarding injunctions in environmental judicial review. The communication was submitted in accordance with the provisions of chapter VI of the annex to decision I/7 of the Meeting of the Parties.

Please find enclosed a copy of the communication, which is being forwarded to you at the request of the Committee in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 22 of the annex to decision I/7.

The communication has been registered under the symbol ACCC/C/2012/65, which you are invited to cite in future correspondence on the matter. The main documentation relating to the communication will be shortly available on the Committee's website at: <http://www.unece.org/env/pp/pubcom.html>.

At its thirty-sixth meeting (27-30 March 2012), the Committee considered the communication and the supporting documentation. It decided that with respect to the allegation concerning security for costs, the communication was not admissible on the ground of not meeting the de minimis requirement.

With respect to the allegations on cross-undertakings on damages, while the communication was admissible on a preliminary basis, in accordance with paragraph 20 of the annex to decision I/7, the Committee decided to apply its summary proceedings procedure (ECE/MP.PP/C.1/2010/4, para.45), because they related to systemic legal issues which the Committee had already discussed in the past (see findings and recommendations on communication ACCC/C/2008/33 concerning compliance by the United Kingdom and decision IV/9i of the Meeting of the Parties). Hence, the Committee intends not to further consider these allegations. This is also in line with the nature of the Convention's compliance mechanism, which is not a means of redress.

A copy of the preliminary determination on admissibility is attached. The Committee did not proceed to reach any conclusions with respect to the compliance issues referred to in the communication.

You are now reminded to provide information on the progress achieved on the implementation of decision IV/9i of the Meeting of the Parties. You may comment on the specific allegations, if you so wish. At the same time, you are encouraged to avoid submitting to the Committee excessive documentation which is not strictly relevant to the allegations of non-compliance.

Please do not hesitate to contact the secretariat if you have any questions.

Yours sincerely,

Aphrodite Smagadi
Secretary to the Aarhus Convention Compliance Committee
