Dear Fiona

Yes, that was the meaning of my message.

Best regards

Peter

Dear Peter,

Thank you very much for your very speedy reply.

May I just confirm that my understanding of the communicant's position is correct, namely that in the light of the decision of the Eastern High Court dated 1 October 2015, the communicant requests to withdraw its claim before the Committee and agrees that the Committee can proceed to close the case?

Kind regards,
Fiona

Dear Fiona

Sorry I should have contacted you before. In September the Ministry of Transport accept all claims from BoM and 1 October the case finished by a ruling of the Eastern High Court accepting all claims. So the claims before the Compliance Committee is withdrawn.

Lind regards

Peter Pagh

Dear Mr Pagh,

As you may be aware, the Compliance Committee will hold its 50th meeting this week from 6-9 October.

I write to ask you for a brief update as to the status of the case before the Eastern High Court.

Do you now have a date for the substantive hearing? If so, how long after the hearing are the High Court's judgements normally handed down?

Kind regards,
Fiona Marshall
