Dear Mr Pagh,

Thank you very much for your very fast reply. This is most helpful.

I understand that the legal aid appeal decision is expected on 25 June 2015. As this will be just before the Committee's 49th meeting (30 June - 3 July 2015), could I ask you to update me promptly once you have received that decision as to what the next step will be.

If the matter will thereafter be given a date for the hearing before the Eastern High Court, I would be grateful for an indication if you have it of when the case will be heard, and also how long the High Court's judgments normally take to be handed down, so I can inform the Committee accordingly.

As I mentioned in my last email, in the light of your reply on those points, the Committee will decide how to proceed at its upcoming meeting.

Kind regards,
Fiona Marshall
