Subject: Re: ACCC/C/2015/128 (European Union) - extension request from the Party concerned

Dear Sebastian, dear colleagues,

The communicants would like to respectfully request an extension of our deadline to respond to the Party Concerned's response to the Committee's questions.

Already on March 2nd I booked my summer vacation abroad for the 28th of June through the 15th of July. I can gladly submit proof of this, if such information is kept confidential, due to being personal in nature. While I will be back in Vienna starting the week thereafter, I had originally planned on continuing my vacation also in that week as well. I can however, if absolutely needed, make some adjustments to my plans for that week (16.7-20.7).

There is unfortunately no one else in our office who can address this matter.

I do indeed apologize for not having brought this to your attention earlier; I had thought that I would be traveling only a week later than the deadline for the extension granted by the Chair, had hoped that a week would be enough for me to prepare a suitable response, and was loathe to cause any further delays. As I am in fact traveling already on the 28th, I would greatly appreciate it if the Chair would consent to giving us an extension to respond to the Party Concerned's answers.

Of course, should the Party concerned be able to submit its answers earlier than the deadline kindly provided by the Chair, then this problem may indeed not arise in the first place.

With kind regards,

Summer Kern
