Dear Mr. Kuratov,
Dear Ms. Dauletyarova and Ms. Shalabekova,

At its sixty-fifth meeting (Geneva, 4-8 November 2019), the Compliance Committee considered the preliminary admissibility of communication PRE/ACCC/C/2019/167 concerning Kazakhstan submitted by Green Salvation on 26 June 2018.

I write to inform you that, after taking into account the information received, the Committee has determined the communication to be inadmissible in accordance with paragraph 20(d) of the annex to decision I/7 of the Meeting of the Parties due to a failure to demonstrate that the allegations made in the communication fall within the scope of the provisions of the Convention.

The text of decision I/7 of the Meeting of the Parties is available at:
<https://www.unece.org/fileadmin/DAM/env/pp/documents/mop1/ece.mp.pp.2.add.8.e.pdf>

If Green Salvation considers that the Committee's determination that the communication is inadmissible was based on a manifest error, it may request a reconsideration of the Committee's determination of admissibility. Any such request must be submitted to the secretariat, with a reasoning of no more than 1200 words (2 pages A4 size), no later than five weeks from today, i.e., Thursday, 19 December 2019. Please note that a request for reconsideration is not an opportunity to provide information on either subsequent developments or evidence that could have been provided earlier.

Please do not hesitate to contact the secretariat if you have any questions regarding the above.

Kind regards,
Fiona
