Template for Updating List of Varieties for Apples

Note by the secretariat: This document contains the draft template to be used for requests of updating the list of varieties for apples. It will be tested until the 2004 session of the Specialized Section.

Request for updating the list of varieties of the standard for apples FFV 50<sup>3</sup>

Name of the variety
Parentage
Breeder
Synonyms (if known)
Trademarks (if known) <sup>4</sup>
Breeders description of the variety
Economic importance in international trade (cartons sold, acreage, turnover in €) or other justification
Colour group <sup>5</sup>
Russeting <sup>6</sup>
Size group <sup>7</sup>
Applicant <sup>8</sup>

<sup>3</sup> The list of varieties is a non-exhaustive list which means that fruits of varieties that are not part of the list may be marketed and should be graded according to their varietal characteristics. It is the intention to include those varieties to the list that are of economic importance in international trade and show red colouring, are large fruited and/or show russeting characteristics.

Please send the completed form to:

United Nations Economic Commission for Europe,
Trade Development and Timber Division, Agricultural Standards Unit
Palais des Nations, 1211 Geneva 10, Switzerland

Email: agristandards@unece.org

The request will be presented to the next meeting of the Specialized Section for Standardization of Fresh Fruit and Vegetables.

<sup>4</sup> It is the intention of the United Nations to ensure that trademark names are highlighted in the list of varieties. Therefore, the evidence of ownership of any applicable patent or trademark regarding the variety as well as the countries for which the protection has been obtained should be included in the form.

<sup>5</sup> For varieties showing red colouring, please indicate the appropriate colour group A, B or C (see Annex of the standard). For varieties showing no or very poor red colouring please delete the box.

<sup>6</sup> Please indicate an "R" in case the variety shows a characteristic russeting of the skin, which will be beyond those limits set in the table of the annex of the standard.

<sup>7</sup> Please take into account the minimum sizes determined in chapter III PROVISIONS CONCERNING SIZING and indicate an "L" for large fruited varieties, or delete the box for small fruited varieties.

<sup>8</sup> Please indicate name and address of the ministry or official control authority as well as a contact person of the country applying for amendment or addition of the list of varieties.
