ECONOMIC COMMISSION FOR EUROPE

INLAND TRANSPORT COMMITTEE

Working Party on Road Transport

One hundredth session
Geneva, 17-19 October 2006
Item 4 of the provisional agenda

CONSIDERATION OF PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE AETR

Note by the secretariat

On the basis of the request contained in Article 2.4 of the new Regulation adopted by the EU (published in May 2006 in the Official Journal of the European Union), which was supported by the Committee on Inland Transport at its 68th session, the secretariat, in cooperation with the European Commission, has prepared amendment proposals to the AETR, which seek to align it with the new EU Regulation No 562/2006 and Directive 2006/22/EC of 15 March 2006.

In order to facilitate their understanding, these amendments are presented under the form of a comparison table between the current text of the AETR (including the latest amendments, which entered into force on 16 June 2006 concerning the digital tachograph) and the new provisions to be introduced.

Following the discussions at the meeting of the Ad hoc Working Group on the Revision of the AETR (22-24 May 2006), the secretariat has modified the table to introduce the modifications proposed by the Ad Hoc Group. The updated table appears below. The new modifications appear in italics.

a. "vehicle" means any motor vehicle or trailer; this term includes any combination of vehicles;		Art.4 (b) of the EU Regulation	A little bit different but not to be changed.
b. "motor vehicle" means any self-propelled road vehicle which is normally used for carrying persons or goods by road or for drawing, on the road, vehicles used for the carriage of persons or goods; this term does not include agricultural tractors;		Art.4 (b) of the EU Regulation	Idem
c. "trailer" means any vehicle designed to be drawn by a motor vehicle and includes semi trailers;		Art.4 (b) of the EU Regulation	Idem
d. "semi trailer" means any trailer designed to be coupled to a motor vehicle in such a way that part of it rests on the motor vehicle and that a substantial part of its weight and of the weight of its load is borne by the motor vehicle;		Art.4 (b) of the EU Regulation	Idem
e. "combination of vehicles" means coupled vehicles which travel on the road as a unit;		This definition does not exist in the EU Regulation	To be kept
f. "permissible maximum weight" means the	"permissible maximum mass" means the	Art.4 (m) of the EU	‘Mass’, rather than ‘weight’, is the

h. "international road transport" means road transport which involves the crossing of at least one frontier;		This definition does not exist in the EU Regulation	To be kept
i. "regular services" means services which provide for the carriage of passengers at specified intervals along specified routes, passengers being taken up and set down at predetermined stopping points. Rules governing the operations of services or documents taking the place thereof, approved by the competent authorities of Contracting Parties and published by the carrier before coming into operation, shall specify the conditions of carriage and in particular the frequency of services, timetables, faretables and the obligation to accept passengers for carriage, insofar as such conditions are not prescribed by any law or regulation Services by whomsoever organized, which provide for the carriage of specified categories of passengers to the exclusion of other passengers, insofar as such services are operated under the conditions specified in the first subparagraph of this definition, shall be deemed to be regular services. 	services, in particular those providing for the carriage of workers to and from their place of work or of schoolchildren to and from school, are hereinafter called "special regular services";
j	"driver" means any person, whether wage-earning or not, who drives the vehicle even for a short period, or who is carried on the vehicle in order to be available for driving if necessary;	"driver" means any person, whether wage-earning or not, who drives the vehicle even for a short period, or who is carried on a vehicle as part of his duties in order to be available for driving if necessary;	Art.4 (c) of the EU Regulation	This nuance ensures those drivers who are carried in a convoy of vehicles but who switch vehicles to commence driving or who are carried in a vehicle as part of their duties in order to take over a lorry/coach should still be considered as 'drivers'.
k	"crew member" means the driver or either of the following, whether wage-earning or not i) driver's mate, i.e. any person accompanying the driver in order to assist him in certain manoeuvres and habitually taking an effective part in the transport operations, though not a driver in the sense of paragraph (j) of this article; ii) conductor, i.e. any person who accompanies the driver of a vehicle engaged in the carriage of passengers and is responsible in particular for the issue or checking of tickets or other documents entitling passengers to travel on the vehicle;		This definition does not exist in the EU Regulation	To be kept
l.	"week" means the period between 00.00 hours on Monday and 24.00 hours on Sunday;		Art.4 (i) of the EU Regulation	Same definition
m.	"rest" means any uninterrupted period of at least one hour during which the driver may freely dispose of his time.	"rest" means any uninterrupted period [...] during which the driver may freely dispose of his time;	Art.4 (f) of the EU Regulation	The definition of 'rest' has been simplified. 'Rest' is to be distinguished from 'rest period', which is a distinct time period in the rules. There is no longer a minimum daily rest period of at least 1 hour, nor compensation for reductions in daily rest – split rests are now 3 hours plus 9 hours, so having the one hour distinction is no longer necessary or appropriate

	(n) ‘break’ means any period during which a driver may not carry out any driving or any other work and which is used exclusively for recuperation;	Art.4 (d) of the EU Regulation	New definition added on the request of the Ad Hoc Working Group on the Revision of the AETR
	(o) ‘daily rest period’ means the daily period during which a driver may freely dispose of his time and covers a ‘regular daily rest period’ and a ‘reduced daily rest period’ : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - ‘regular daily rest period’ means any period of rest of at least 11 hours. Alternatively, this regular daily rest period may be taken in two periods, the first of which must be an uninterrupted period of at least 3 hours and the second an uninterrupted period of at least nine hours, - ‘reduced daily rest period’ means any period of rest of at least nine hours but less than 11 hours; 	Art.4 (g) of the EU Regulation	New definition added on the request of the Ad Hoc Working Group on the Revision of the AETR
	(p) ‘weekly rest period’ means the weekly period during which a driver may freely dispose of his time and covers a ‘regular weekly rest period’ and a ‘reduced weekly rest period’ : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - ‘regular weekly rest period’ means any period of rest of at least 45 hours, 	Art.4 (h) of the EU Regulation	New definition added on the request of the Ad Hoc Working Group on the Revision of the AETR

	- ‘reduced weekly rest period’ means any period of rest of less than 45 hours, which may, subject to the conditions laid down in Article 8(4) of the Agreement be shortened to a minimum of 24 consecutive hours;
	(q) “other work” means all working activities except driving, including any work for the same or another employer, within or outside of the transport sector. It does not include waiting time and time not devoted to driving spent in a vehicle in motion, a ferry or a train.	Art.4 (e) of the EU Regulation	To be added but under a modified form. This definition reflects that set out in Article 7(3) of the Agreement, but specifically indicates that work for any other employer is to be taken into account.
	(r) “driving time” means the duration of driving activity recorded automatically or semi-automatically or manually in the conditions defined in this Agreement	Art.4 (j) of the EU Regulation	To be added but under a modified form. This definition simply confirms that driving recorded on the recording equipment or manually if it breaks down is to be considered as a ‘driving period’.
	(s) ‘daily driving time’ means the total accumulated driving time between the end of one daily rest period and the beginning of the following daily rest period or between a daily rest period and a weekly rest period;	Art.4 (k) of the EU Regulation	New definition added on the request of the Ad Hoc Working Group on the Revision of the AETR
	(t) ‘weekly driving time’ means the total accumulated driving time during a week;	Art.4 (l) of the EU Regulation	Idem
	(u) ‘driving period’ means the accumulated driving time from when a driver commences driving following a rest period or a break until he takes a rest period or a break. The driving period may be continuous or broken.	Art.4 (q) of the EU Regulation	Idem

	(v) 'multi-manning' means the situation where, during each period of driving between any two consecutive daily rest periods, or between a daily rest period and a weekly rest period, there are at least two drivers in the vehicle to do the driving. For the first hour of multi-manning the presence of another driver or drivers is optional but for the remainder of the period it is compulsory;	Art.4 (o) of the EU Regulation	Idem
	(w) “transport undertaking” means any natural person, any legal person, any association or group of persons without legal personality, whether profit-making or not, or any official body, whether having its own legal personality or being dependent upon an authority having such a personality, which engages in carriage by road, whether for hire or reward or for own account;	Art.4 (p) of the EU Regulation	This definition clarifies what constitutes a transport undertaking.

2. Any driver engaged in the carriage of passengers shall have reached the age of 21 years. Any driver engaged in the carriage of passengers on journeys beyond a 50 kilometre radius from the place where the vehicle is normally based must also fulfil one of the following conditions: (a) he must have worked for at least one year in the carriage of goods as a driver of vehicles with a permissible maximum weight exceeding 3.5 tonnes; (b) he must have worked for at least one year as a driver of vehicles used to provide passenger services on journeys within a 50 kilometre radius from the place where the vehicle is normally based, or other types of passenger services not subject to this Agreement provided the competent authority considers that he has by so doing acquired the necessary experience; (c) he must hold a certificate of professional competence recognized by one of the Contracting Parties confirming that he has completed a training course for drivers of vehicles intended for the carriage of passengers by road.		Now contained in Art. 5(3) of Directive 2003/59/EC on the initial qualification and training of drivers – experience is no longer a determining factor, while CPC type determines the minimum age needed.	To be kept without modification
Article 6 Driving periods	Article 6 Driving periods
1. The driving period between any two daily rest periods or between a daily rest period and a weekly rest period, hereinafter called "daily driving period", shall not exceed nine hours. It may be extended twice in any one week to ten hours. A driver must, after no more than six	1. The daily driving time, as defined in article 1 (s) of this Agreement, shall not exceed nine hours. It may be extended to at most 10 hours not more than twice during the week.	Art. 6.1 of the EU Regulation	Formulation based on the EU Regulation

daily driving periods, take a weekly rest period as defined in article 8 (3). The weekly rest period may be postponed until the end of the sixth day if the total driving time over the six days does not exceed the maximum corresponding to six daily driving periods. — In the case of the international carriage of passengers, other than on regular services, the terms "six" and "sixth" in the second and third subparagraphs shall be replaced by "twelve" and "twelfth" respectively.	2. The weekly driving time, as defined in article 1 (t) of this Agreement, shall not exceed 56 hours.	Art. 6.2 of the EU Regulation	Formulation based on the EU Regulation This clarifies the maximum weekly driving time which the current text in the Agreement leaves open to interpretation.
2. The total period of driving in any one fortnight shall not exceed ninety hours.	3. The total accumulated driving time during any two consecutive weeks shall not exceed 90 hours	Art. 6.3 of the EU Regulation	Formulation based on the EU Regulation
	4. Driving periods shall include all driving on the territory of Contracting and non-Contracting Parties.	Art. 6.4 of the EU Regulation	This paragraph clarifies that driving does not stop or start when a border is crossed.
	5. A driver shall record as other work any time spent as described in article 1 (q) as well as any time spent driving a vehicle used for commercial operations not falling within the scope of this Agreement and shall record any periods of availability, as set out in the Annex, article 12.3 (c). This record shall be entered either manually on a record sheet, a printout or by use of manual input facilities on recording equipment.	Art. 6.5 of the EU Regulation	This paragraph deals with the issue of ‘mixed scope’ driving and ensures for road safety reasons that the other activities undertaken by the driver are not counted as ‘rest’.
Article 7 Breaks	Article 7 Breaks
1 After four-and-a-half hours' driving, the driver shall observe a break of at least forty-five minutes, unless he begins a rest period.	1. After a driving period of four and a half hours a driver shall take an uninterrupted break of not less than 45 minutes, unless he begins a rest period	Art. 7 of the EU Regulation	The provision is aligned with the text of the EU Regulation

2. This break may be replaced by breaks of at least fifteen minutes each distributed over the driving period or immediately after this period in such a way as to comply with the provisions of paragraph 1.	2. This break, as defined in article 1 (n) of this Agreement, may be replaced by a break of at least 15 minutes followed by a break of at least 30 minutes each distributed over the driving period or immediately after this period in such a way as to comply with the provisions of paragraph 1.	Art. 7 of the EU Regulation	This addresses the anomaly whereby a driver may drive for almost 9 hours with only a 15 minute break. For road safety and practical reasons this is insufficient recuperation time. The amendment allows a 30 minute minimum break.
3. During these breaks, the driver may not carry out any other work. For the purposes of this article, the waiting time and time not devoted to driving spent in a vehicle in motion, a ferry, or a train shall not be regarded as "other work".	3. During these breaks, the driver may not carry out any driving or any other work. 3. For the purposes of this article, the waiting time and time not devoted to driving spent in a vehicle in motion, a ferry, or a train shall not be regarded as "other work", as defined in article 1 (q) of this Agreement, [and will be able to be qualified as a "break.]"	This provision exists under the form of a definition (see Art. 4 (d) "break" in the EU Regulation).	This provision is deleted given that it corresponds to the definition of "break" which appears in Article 1 (n). Only the last sentence of the paragraph is kept and is completed The text in square brackets needs further discussion
4. The breaks observed under this article may not be regarded as daily rest periods.		This precision does not exist in the EU Regulation	To be kept without modification. This provision could be deleted if the addition proposed in paragraph 3 is accepted.

Article 8 Rest periods	Article 8 Rest periods
1. In each period of twenty-four hours, the driver shall have a daily rest period of at least eleven consecutive hours, which may be reduced to a minimum of nine consecutive hours not more than three times in any one week, on condition that an equivalent period of rest be granted as compensation before the end of the following week. On days when the rest is not reduced in accordance with the first subparagraph, it may be taken in two or three separate periods during the twenty-four hour period, one of which must be of at least eight consecutive hours. In this case the minimum length of the rest shall be increased to twelve hours. 2. During each period of thirty hours when a vehicle is manned by at least two drivers, each driver shall have a rest period of not less than eight consecutive hours. 3. In the course of each week, one of the rest periods referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2 shall be extended by way of weekly rest, to a total of forty-five consecutive hours. This rest period may be reduced to a minimum of thirty- six consecutive hours if taken at the place where the vehicle is normally based or where the driver is based, or to a minimum of twenty-four consecutive hours if taken elsewhere. Each reduction shall be compensated by an equivalent rest taken en bloc before the end of the third week	1. A driver shall take daily and weekly rest periods as defined in article 1 (o) and (p). 2. Within each period of 24 hours after the end of the previous daily rest period or weekly rest period a driver shall have taken a new daily rest period. If the portion of the daily rest period which falls within that 24 hour period is at least 9 hours but less than 11 hours, then the daily rest period in question shall be regarded as a reduced daily rest period. 3. By way of derogation from paragraph 2, within 30 hours of the end of a daily or weekly rest period, a driver engaged in multi-manning, as defined in Article 1 (v), must have taken a new daily rest period of at least nine hours. 4. A daily rest period may be extended to make a regular weekly rest period or a reduced weekly rest period. 5. A driver may have at most three reduced daily rest periods between any two weekly rest periods. 6. In any two consecutive weeks a driver shall take at least: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - two regular weekly rest periods, or - one regular weekly rest period and one reduced weekly rest period of at least 24 hours. However, the reduction shall be compensated by an equivalent period of rest taken at one time before the end of the third week following the week in question. 	Art. 8. of the EU Regulation	To avoid bad or different interpretations, the Ad Hoc Working Group considered that it was preferable to align this article with the corresponding provisions of the EU Regulation. Purpose of the modification: To simplify the provisions and facilitate enforcement, compensation for reduced daily rest has been removed. By way of recompense the minimum length of daily rest (see ‘split daily rest’ provision in next paragraph) is raised from 8 hours to 9 hours, and splitting can only be into two periods, not three. Splitting daily rest still means that a minimum of 12 hours rest is required. To simplify the provisions and facilitate enforcement, 24 hours may also be a reduced rest period at the operational base or the driver’s home – in any case the new tachograph cannot record whether a driver is away from base or not.

following the week in question. 4. A weekly rest period which begins in one week and continues into the following week may be attached to either of these weeks. 5. In the case of the carriage of passengers to which article 6 (1), fourth subparagraph, applies, the weekly rest period may be postponed until the week following that in respect of which the rest is due and added on to that second week's weekly rest. 6. Any rest taken as compensation for the reduction of the daily and/or weekly rest periods must be attached to another rest of at least eight hours and shall be granted, at the request of the person concerned, at the vehicle's parking place or driver's base. 7. Where a driver chooses to do this, the daily rest period and a weekly rest period of less than 45 hours away from the base may be taken in a vehicle, as long as it is fitted with a bunk suitable sleeping facilities for each driver and is stationary. 9. A weekly rest period that falls in two weeks may be counted in either week, but not in both.		This clarifies a general rule that was more vaguely put in Article 6(1) second and third paragraphs. It also now applies to all transport operations, including occasional passenger transport – see the deletions in Article 6(1) paragraph four. This change recognises increased use of on-board sleeping facilities for extended periods away from the driver's base. However it leaves the decision up to the driver. There is a recognition that sleeping facilities should be available for every driver on board. The deletion of the second part of Art. 8.7 and the addition in italics in Art. 8.8 are proposed by the Chairman of the Ad hoc Working Group.
