CORTE

Regional Road Safety Capacity Building

Regional Road Safety initiative

- Belgrade, October 2014 –

Rémy Russotto, CORTE, CEO

1. What is CORTE ?
2. Who is CORTE?
3. What does CORTE do?
4. A Road Safety initiative:

the CORTE Balkan Regional Office

1. WHAT IS CORTE?

- Confederation of Organisations in Road Transport Enforcement

- International Association based in Brussels (EU focus)

- Objective = intelligent enforcement policies & practises

1. Enforcement as a road safety enabler (awareness & repression)
2. Enforcement as a whole: implement / enforce / progress
3. Development of common & agreed best practices

Enforcement contributes to a sustainable
Road Safety Culture / System / Product

2. WHO IS CORTE: 83 Members
53 National Authorities +13 Associations & 17 Companies

| 22 EU Member States	17 partner Countries
Belgium	Albania
Bulgaria	Andorra
Croatia	Australia
Cyprus	Belarus
Czech Republic	Bosnia and Herzegovina
Denmark	Georgia
Estonia	Iceland
Finland	Iran
Greece	Kazakhstan
Hungary	Macedonia
Ireland	Moldova
Latvia	Montenegro
Luxembourg	Norway
Malta	Serbia
Netherlands	Switzerland
Portugal	Turkey
Romania	Ukraine
Slovakia	---
Slovenia	+ Kosovo (Associate Member)
Spain
Sweden
United Kingdom

3. What does CORTE DO?

Create best road practises between

• national authorities within one country

• countries within the EU and with non-EU countries

• public and private organisations

• CORTE Members and EU / UN / World Bank Institutions

CORTE

Road TRANSPORT

Road SAFETY

Road SECURITY

- CORTE working groups
- international projects supported by the EU
- Road Safety is horizontal

4. ROAD SAFETY COORDINATION ACTION:

CORTE + the Serbian Road Traffic Safety Agency
= the CORTE Regional Office for the Balkans

- based in Belgrade
- represented by Mr Jovica Vasiljevic
- created in May 2014
- currently developing activities

Objectives:
- supporting Serbia (e.g. in pre-accession)
- coordination action in the Region

Challenge: find financial support to boost actions

Thank you for your attention