Additions to the UNECE website

Note by the Secretariat

1. The secretariat wishes to draw the attention of the Working Party to the following changes on the website:

   • In accordance with 5.4.3.5, linguistic versions of ADN and instructions in writing received by the secretariat can be consulted using the following link: http://www.unece.org/trans/danger/publi/adn/adn_linguistic_e.html

   • A web page containing the contact information of competent authorities for the transport of dangerous goods is also available. Contracting parties are invited to review and complete their respective information and to send any comments on the structure and design of the page to the secretariat. The page can be found on the following link: http://www.unece.org/trans/main/danger/competent_authorities.html

   • The page for interpretation issues has been restructured. The secretariat welcomes comments and suggestions from the Working Party.