Transmitted by the Government of Germany

Germany thanks all participants of the lunchtime working group and presents a new text as follows (changes underlined):

“9.1.3.4 The validity of a certificate of approval shall expire not later than one year after the date of the technical inspection of the vehicle preceding the issue of the certificate. The next approval term shall, however, be related to the last nominal expiry date, if the technical inspection is performed within one month before or after that date.

If the technical inspection is performed after the last nominal expiry date the vehicle shall not continue to be used for the carriage of dangerous goods until the vehicle has a valid certificate of approval.”
