

Yinfen ZHANG

Associate Researcher

She is an associate researcher in CNIS (China National Institute of Standardization), has been engaged in research on standardization of international trade, e-commerce, e-government and industry digitalization.

She is responsible for the maintenance of UN/LOCODE (United Nations trade and transport location codes) in China. In recent years, she has been committed to the standardization of Single Window led by Office of China Port Administration. More than 10 national standards related to trade facilitation and Cross-border e-Commerce have been developed.