

SESSION II – BLOCKCHAIN IN ENERGY

Galia Kondova

Senior Lecturer and Researcher, FHNW

Galia Kondova (PhD) is an economist with World Bank experience in private and financial sector structural reform projects in Central Europe. Since 2010 Senior Lecturer at the School of Business of the University of Applied Sciences and Arts Northwestern Switzerland (FHNW) in Basel researching and publishing in the area of digitalization and Blockchain for economic growth and public empowerment.

Galia Kondova is a member of the Academic Advisory Body of the International Association of Trusted Blockchain Applications (INATBA). She is a focal point and moderator of the EuroDIG 2020 Workshop "Innovative Uses of Blockchain for Public Empowerment" and an expert member of the Swiss Association for Standardization (SNV) Initiative "DLT for Power". She is a former Stagiaire of the Robert Schuman Foundation at the European Parliament.