

Rajiv GARG

Domain Coordinator, International Supply Chain Orchestration, UN/CEFACT

Over 4 decades of Transportation, Logistics and IT Experience. Sailed as navigation officer on Ocean vessels before holding various Management positions with Shipping Lines and Agencies for over 10 Years. Received Degree in Computer Science from California State University, USA. Joined Vilden Associates in 1990, a premier software and service provider to Maritime, Trucking, Warehouse and Freight Forwarder/NVOCC companies.

During the development & roll-out of US Customs 24 Hour Advance Manifest filing requirement, played a vital role in educating the industry and assisted US Customs in conducting seminars and participate as a panelist to promote the understanding of the Rule. Worked closely with Customs on testing and development of Importer Security filing (10+2) Rule. He is a leading authority, assisting companies develop efficient, cost-effective solutions for supply chain and Government Compliance.

Thanks to Mr. Garg and his team, Vilden today provides solutions including Global eCommerce capabilities to the Transportation & Logistics companies world-wide which do business with Carriers, Terminals, Truckers, Rail, Exporters, Importers, Customs and other Government agencies.

Currently Domain Coordinator within UN/CEFACT, former member of CUSTOMS ELECTRONIC SYSTEMS ACTION COMMITTEE (CESAC), Trade Support Network (TSN) MMM group and Terminal Operator and Port Authority Subcommittee for EDI Standards Development (TOPAS).