

Hakki GURKAN

European Union Expert

Hakki is working for as European Union Expert for Republic of Turkey's Ministry of Trade, focusing on international trade facilitation issues within international, regional and bilateral area. Since 2015, he is working for Trade Facilitation Unit established within external relations department.

He is involved with establishment of Coordination Committee on Trade Facilitation through creation of legal framework, stakeholder meetings and other organizational issues. He is part of Committee's Secretariat and coordinator for Working Group on Customs and International Trade.