

Mini Conference
Draft Agenda

The UN/CEFACT Reference Data Model
A new way to facilitate eBusiness communication

27 September 2016
PM1 13:30-15:00	Opening Supply Chain Reference Data Model and related projects, Ian Watt <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - SCRDM reaching Public Review Stage - Related projects <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Status - Introduction to the concept of Reference Data Models - Benefits of using a Reference Data Model <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - For decision makers - For implementers (UN/CEFACT) - For implementers (government / private sector) - The creation of a collection of Supply Chain and Transport & Logistics business artefacts (SCRDM and MMTRDM) - The Evolution: Assembling standard business documents from masters (CCBDA) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Example: Cross Industry Invoice (CII) - Next steps for other standard business documents (such as Purchase Order)
15:00-15:30	TEA BREAK
PM2 15:30-17:00	Presentation of the SCRDM project deliverables, Gerhard Heemskerck <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Reference Data Model Green Paper - Reference Data Model Guideline - SCRDM: Subset of the Core Component Library (CCL) - Supply Chain Master Document Structure - Supply Chain Business Documents - Links to UN/EDIFACT and UN/TDED Closing

