Screening of SWITCH: The Global Energy Transition UN Cinema (Kazakh Room), 18.00 hours, 27 April

Energy impacts every aspect of our lives and underpins the Sustainable Development Goals – yet energy remains a vast and complex subject. Dr. Scott Tinker, together with Director Harry Lynch, set out to take a look at the global energy scene. They did not create a script ahead of time and then shoot footage to tell a story that had already been determined. They set out instead to explore and learn and let the story evolve. Dr. Tinker will introduce this award-winning film.

The UN Cinema also known as the Kazakh Room (room XIV) is located on the first floor of the A Building near Door A15: to view the location click here.

Please note: there is the possibility that the UN Cinema may be needed for another meeting in which case the film screening will be moved to Salle XII.

Reception, 27 April

A cocktail reception will be held after the screening of SWITCH. The reception will be held at 19.45 hours on 27 April and is kindly sponsored by DeGolyer and MacNaughton Canada Limited.
