

UNECE Joint Task Force on Environmental Indicators: indicators on energy

Geneva, 19 November 2014

Tiina Luige
Chief of Environment and Multi-domain Statistics Section
UNECE Statistical Division

Joint Task Force on environmental indicators

- Set up in 2009
- Joint between Conference of European Statisticians and Committee on Environmental Policy
- Aim: improve environment statistics and indicators for producing national state-of-the-environment reports in SEE and EECCA countries.
- Guidelines for the Application of Environmental Indicators in Eastern Europe, Caucasus and Central Asia

<http://www.unece.org/env/indicators.html>

Indicators

42 indicators covering:

- Air pollution
- Climate change
- Water
- Biodiversity
- Land and soil
- Agriculture
- Energy
- Transport
- Waste
- Environmental financing

Energy indicators

4 indicators:

- Final energy consumption
- Total primary energy supply
- Energy intensity
- Renewable energy consumption

Renewable energy

Renewable energy consumption reviewed in May 2010

<http://www.unece.org/index.php?id=14174#/>

- No data for Albania, Bosnia-Herzegovina, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Republic of Moldova, Mongolia, Russian Federation
- Partial data : Armenia, Azerbaijan, Belarus, Georgia, the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, Serbia, Uzbekistan, Ukraine

Thank you!

For more information:

http://www.unece.org/env/europe/monitoring/IandR\_en.html

tiina.luige@unece.org

