2. What are the main lessons learnt?

- Practical case-tailored assistance raises interest among Parties
- Important to provide opportunities for non-Party involvement
- Step-by-step development needed (e.g. reporting)

3. What are the challenges ahead?

A Functional Committee:

- Use by the Parties
- Good composition: credibility and professionalism
- Resources: time and funding
- Perspective for the future: to become a unique platform for facilitating solutions for water-related disputes
