
Consultation on small-scale water supply and sanitation and equitable access to water and sanitation in Serbia

Belgrade, 8 December 2014

- 10:00-10:15 Welcome and opening by
- Dr Dragan Vukanic, Assistant Minister, Ministry of Health of the Republic of Serbia
 - Oliver Schmoll, WHO Regional Office for Europe
- 10:15-10:30 Introduction to the objectives of the consultation
(Chantal Demilecamps, UNECE)
- PART A: Small-scale water supply and sanitation
(Moderator: Katarina Spasovic, Institute of Public Health of Serbia)
- 10:30-10:40 Introduction to the specificities of small-scale water supply and sanitation
(Oliver Schmoll, WHO)
- 10:40-11:00 The situation of small-scale systems in Serbia
(Katarina Spasovic, Institute of Public Health, Serbia)
- 11:00-11:30 Morning break
- 11:30-13:00 Moderated roundtable discussion (see guiding question in the information note)
(Enkhtsetseg Shinee and Oliver Schmoll, WHO)
- 13:00-14:00 Lunch break
- PART B: Equitable access to water and sanitation
(Moderator: Zorica Jovanovski, Institute of Public Health of Serbia)
- 14:00-14:15 Introduction to the concept of “equitable access”
(Chantal Demilecamps, UNECE)
- 14:15-14:25 Reflections on equitable access from the Serbian perspective
(Ljiljana Jovanovic, Ministry of Health of Serbia)
- 14:25-15:30 Moderated roundtable discussion (see guiding question in the information note)
(Nataliya Nikiforova and Chantal Demilecamps, UNECE)
- 15:30-16:00 Afternoon break
- 16:00-16:30 Introduction to the equitable access score-card and discussion on opportunities from possibly applying it in Serbia
(Chantal Demilecamps, UNECE)
- 16:30-17:00 Wrap-up of the consultation and concluding discussion