

Workshop on Reporting Chemical Accidents and Exchanging Lessons Learned

Organised by

United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP)

European Commission Joint Research Centre (EC-JRC)

Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD)

27 October 2016, afternoon session: Exchange session with OECD WGCA members and Chinese representatives, co-convened by UNEP and JRC.

Location: OECD conference center – 2, rue André Pascal 75775 Paris Cedex 16, France

13h00 – 14h00	lunch at OECD conference center
14h00 – 14h15	Session 1: Welcoming remarks and objective of the session (UNEP, JRC, OECD)
14h15- 15h30:	Session 2: Accident prevention and preparedness in industrial parks Short Presentations (5-10' each) on environmental accidents in industrial parks, and examples of prevention and preparedness actions: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- UNEP: international experience (CAPP and APELL implementation)- China: example and current status on prevention and preparedness- Experiences from WGCA delegations:<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Rachel McCann, Health and Safety Executive, UK• Second presentation TBD Interactive discussion (30')
15h30 – 15h45	Coffee break
15h45 – 17h15	Session 3: Accident reporting and lessons learned Tianjin accident (15') Presentation by Professor Zhao, China: findings from the Tianjin accident Discussion of challenges with accident reporting, chemical risk awareness and lessons learned (1h15')

- Presentation from JRC will launch this discussion with a presentation (10') on how efforts to improve chemical accident prevention and preparedness need 1) greater accessibility to information on chemical accident events happening today, and 2) sufficient resources in industry and government for seeking lessons from past accidents.
- Roundtable of perspectives of participants on challenges, good practice and possible future approaches.
- Interactive discussion

17h15 – 17h30

Session 4: Concluding remarks

Take away recommendations and best practices (UNEP, JRC, China)

ADVANCE DRAFT