2. High-level session: “The Protocol on Water and Health: catalysing sustainable development in the pan-European region”

Tentative timing: Tuesday, 19 November, 10.45 a.m.–1 p.m. and 3–3.30 p.m.

7. Water, sanitation and health are at the core of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and are key to successfully achieve its aspirations. The implementation of Sustainable Development Goal 6 (Ensure availability and sustainable management of water and sanitation for all), Goal 3 (Ensure healthy lives and promote well-being for all at all ages) and other water, sanitation and health-related targets can best be achieved in the pan-European region by taking full advantage of the institutional and legal framework provided by the Protocol on Water and Health.

8. Over the last twenty years, the Protocol has supported remarkable progress in water, sanitation, hygiene and health in the pan-European region, particularly with regard to providing access to basic drinking water and sanitation services, improving drinking water quality and reducing the occurrence of water-related disease incidents and outbreaks.

9. Nevertheless, a number of challenges persist and require further attention and action, such as gaps in ensuring safely managed and climate-resilient water and sanitation services, providing equitable access to water and sanitation services for all in all settings and addressing emerging health concerns related to the management of water and sanitation systems, such as legionella prevention and antimicrobial resistance. Global threats and trends require new solutions and responses, including with regard to increasing frequency and intensity of extreme weather events induced by climate change, which can have major implications for the performance of water and wastewater infrastructure and services and the availability and quality of water.

10. The Protocol plays a key role in promoting and operationalizing the achievement of the 2030 Agenda in countries of the pan-European region. It offers a sound legal framework that promotes intersectoral and integrated approaches looking at the whole water cycle. It also provides a successful regional platform that supports countries in implementing and monitoring the water, sanitation, hygiene and health-related Sustainable Development Goals, building on its broad experience and valuable practical tools, and thereby prompting progress towards attaining safe drinking water and adequate sanitation for everyone, through sustainable management of water resources.

11. The Protocol serves as an effective framework to help countries mainstream water, sanitation, hygiene and health-related actions into existing sectoral strategies and policies, as well as to ensure alignment with other global and regional commitments, such as those contained in the Declaration of the Sixth Ministerial Conference on Environment and Health (Ostrava, Czechia, 13–15 June 2017) (Ostrava Declaration) and relevant World Health Assembly resolutions, including the 2019 resolution on water, sanitation and hygiene in health-care facilities.<sup>3</sup>

12. The high-level session will provide an opportunity to appraise progress and take stock of concrete results in achieving the Sustainable Development Goals related to water, sanitation, hygiene and health and to have an open dialogue on how to tackle the persisting gaps in the region and respond to the big picture challenges caused by environmental, social and economic change.

<sup>2</sup> Please note that documents with symbols ending in “INF.” and a number are informal documents, produced without editing or translation.

13. The session will present concrete examples of initiatives that illustrate the role played by the Protocol in achieving such Sustainable Development Goals across countries and sectors, looking at both the political and technical dimensions. It will also reflect on the role of the Protocol in shaping the regional agenda on water, sanitation and health and thus achieving the aspirations of the 2030 Agenda and the 2017 Ostrava Declaration in the pan-European region.

14. A keynote speech by Ms. Catarina de Albuquerque, Chief Executive Officer of Sanitation and Water for All, will set the scene by providing a landscape analysis of the water, sanitation and health situation in the pan-European region and outlining how the Protocol framework contributes to achieving the water, sanitation and health-related Sustainable Development Goals.

15. A panel composed of high-level representatives from countries and international and non-governmental organizations will discuss a range of priority issues relevant to the water, sanitation, hygiene and health agenda in the pan-European region, including: equitable access to safely managed water, sanitation and hygiene services for all in all settings; sanitation challenges and wastewater reuse; climate change and water scarcity; antimicrobial resistance and legionella; financing of water and sanitation services; and the value of international cooperation. Panellists will be invited to address these issues from the perspective of the aspirations of the 2030 Agenda and the role of the Protocol in the implementation of the relevant Sustainable Development Goals.

16. Subsequently, Parties, other States and stakeholders will be invited to participate in an interactive moderated discussion on the above issues. Due to the limited time available, interventions and statements should not exceed three minutes. To facilitate the running of the high-level session, delegations planning to make a statement are invited to inform the secretariat in advance.

As a Party, how can your country support efforts to enhance the sustainability and predictability of financing under the Protocol?

(b) How can your country contribute in kind to the Protocol's activities (for example, by: planning and implementing activities foreseen under the programme of work for 2020–2022; hosting meetings, including travel arrangements and providing meeting rooms, accommodation and/or meals for participants; or supporting layout and/or (re)printing publications)?

64. During the round-table discussion, all Parties will be invited to reply to these questions. Representatives of other States, relevant international and non-governmental organizations and other partners may also take the floor.
