

SERBIA

Main impacts of applying the Equitable Access Score-Card under the Protocol on Water and health (1)

- Better understanding of situation and challenges of equitable access to water and sanitation among relevant stakeholders achieved.
- Key stakeholders to contribute to improving equitable access to water and sanitation identified (Ministries of Health and Environment, IPH, SEPA, Ombudsman, 10 local self-governments CSOs, media...)
- Awareness on equitable access raised, incl. at national level.
- Comprehensive overview of existing national and local policy measures to address inequities in access to water and sanitation developed. Information and policy gaps to ensure equitable access to water and sanitation identified.

SERBIA

Main impacts of applying the Equitable Access Score-Card under the Protocol on Water and health (2)

- 2019-2021 Equitable Access Action Plan was developed and endorsed, building on outcomes and main findings of self-assessment.
- Capacities raised at the local and national level for identifying and defining measures/activities directed to ensuring equitable access to water and sanitation
- Action plan informed the revision of the national targets set under the Protocol on Water and Health
- Commitment of relevant national ministries and agencies for implementing of the action plan (funding sources and responsibilities identified)

