Economic Commission for Europe

Conference of the Parties to the Convention on the Transboundary Effects of Industrial Accidents

Eleventh meeting

Geneva, 7–9 December 2020

Item 6 of the provisional agenda

Plan of action for the Convention for the biennium 2021–2022 and its financing

Updated ~~Draft~~ decision on guiding principles for financial assistance

Prepared by the Bureau of the Conference of the Parties

Summary

At its tenth meeting (Geneva, 4–6 December 2018), the Conference of the Parties to the Convention on the Transboundary Effects of Industrial Accidents adopted decision 2018/3 on guiding principles for financial assistance (ECE/CP.TEIA/38/Add.1) to allow for the participation of experts in meetings under the Convention, in particular from countries of Eastern and South-Eastern Europe, the Caucasus and Central Asia, depending on the availability of funds. It agreed to review them at the eleventh meeting of the Conference of the Parties in 2020 (Geneva and online, 7–9 December 2020).

The updated draft decision contained in the present document was is based on the original draft, prepared by the Bureau, with the support of the secretariat (ECE/CP.TEIA/2020/10). Parties with eventual comments on the draft decision are invited to communicate these four weeks in advance of the meeting to the Chair and the secretariat (via email to eee-teia.conv@un.org), i.e. by 9 November 2020. The present document includes comments received from the European Union, following informal discussions with the Chair, Vice-Chairs and the secretariat, in accordance with the advance circulation procedure provided in the draft operating procedures (updated version contained in ECE/CP.TEIA/2020/L.5 based on the original draft ECE/CP.TEIA/2020/11). The first two newly inserted paragraphs recall previously agreed text from decision 2018/2 on fostering implementation of the sustainable financial mechanism under the Convention (ECE/CP.TEIA/38/Add.1), taken by the Conference of the Parties at its tenth meeting (Geneva, 4–6 December 2018).

The Conference of the Parties is invited to decide on guiding principles for financial assistance by adopting this decision.
