

При финансовой поддержке
Европейского Союза

UNECE

Полноправные люди.
Устойчивые страны.

ОБСЕ

Организация по безопасности и сотрудничеству в Европе
Офис программ в Астане

Working meeting of the SEA team on baseline analysis and impact assessment, including mitigation measures

Agenda

Monday, 5 March 2018

09.30 – 10.00 Registration. Welcoming tea/coffee

10.00 – 10.15 Opening of the Working meeting. Welcoming speeches

Ms. Aliya Shalabekova, Head of “Green Economy” Department, Ministry of Energy of the Republic of Kazakhstan

Mr. Martin Smutny, Consultant, Environment Division of the UNECE, Geneva

Mr. Rati Japaridze, Economic and Environmental Officer, OSCE Programme Office in Astana

10.15 – 10.30 Introducing the agenda and brief summary of the current status of the SEA pilot project

Ms. Madina Ibrasheva, SEA/EIA project Team Leader

10.30 – 11.00 Main topics to be addressed in relation to the SEA of the Concept for development of fuel and energy complex of the Republic of Kazakhstan until 2030

Mr. Nurzhan Begalin, key national expert on policy analysis

Q@A

11.00 – 12.00 Baseline analysis

- Purpose of baseline analysis and expected outputs
- Approaches and methods
- Case examples

Presentation by Ms. Marina Khotuleva and Mr. Martin Smutny, consultants to UNECE, followed by brainstorming session on methods and tools to be applied in the SEA pilot

12.00 – 13.00 Assessment of likely impacts

- Purpose, linkages to previous steps and expected results
- Approaches and methods
- Case examples

Presentation by Ms. Marina Khotuleva and Mr. Martin Smutny, consultants to UNECE, followed by brainstorming session on methods and tools to be applied in the SEA pilot

13.00 – 14.00 Lunch

14.00 – 15.30 Mitigation measures

- Purpose, linkages to previous steps and expected results
- Approaches and methods
- Case examples

Presentation by Ms. Marina Khotuleva and Mr. Martin Smutny, consultants to UNECE, followed by brainstorming session on methods and tools to be applied in the SEA pilot

15.30 – 16.00 Coffee-break

16.00 – 17.30 Further steps

- Summary of methods and tools to be used in SEA pilot
- Data and information requirements
- Structure of SEA report and inputs needed from the experts
- Communication to the Working Group
- Workplan for the preparation of the draft SEA report

Discussion facilitated by Ms. Madina Ibrasheva, SEA/EIA project Team Leader

17.30 End of the meeting