Meeting of the Parties to the Convention on Access to Information, Public Participation in Decision-making and Access to Justice in Environmental Matters

Fourth session

Chisinau, 29 June–1 July 2011

Excerpt from the addendum to the report of the fourth session of the Meeting of the Parties (ECE/MP.PP/2011/2/Add.1)*

Decision IV/3 on promoting the application of the principles of the Convention in international forums

Adopted by the Meeting of Parties to the Convention on Access to Information, Public Participation in Decision-making and Access to Justice in Environmental Matters at its fourth session

The Meeting of the Parties,

Recalling article 3, paragraph 7, of the Convention on Access to Information, Public Participation in Decision-making and Access to Justice in Environmental Matters (Aarhus Convention), which requires each Party to promote the application of the principles of the Convention in international environmental decision-making processes and within the framework of international organizations in matters relating to the environment,

Recalling also its decisions II/4 and III/4 on promoting the principles of the Convention in international forums,

1. Notes with appreciation the work undertaken by the Task Force on Public Participation in International Forums;
2. Expresses its gratitude to France for its leadership of the Task Force;
3. Reiterates its commitment to continue to apply the Almaty Guidelines on Promoting the Application of the Principles of the Aarhus Convention in international forums (contained in decision II/4) within the activities and subsidiary bodies established under the Convention;
4. Considers that significant work still remains to be done to implement article 3, paragraph 7, of the Convention and that the principal focus of work on this issue in the next intersessional period should continue to be to encourage Parties to do so;

5. Notes the importance of increasing understanding of the challenges faced, and the good practices employed, by international forums with respect to public participation, through further exchanges of experience between the Convention and international forums;

6. Agrees that the future work in this area will take into consideration the relevant activities undertaken by Parties, Signatories, the secretariat and other stakeholders;

7. Decides to continue the work on promoting the application of the principles of the Convention in international forums under the authority of the Working Group of the Parties;

8. Agrees that the Working Group of the Parties, through, inter alia, thematic sessions, shall oversee progress and challenges encountered in implementing article 3, paragraph 7, of the Convention by Parties, Signatories and other stakeholders to promote the application of the principles of the Convention in international forums and provide a forum for capacity-building;

9. Calls on Parties and Signatories to:

(a) Coordinate within and between ministries to inform officials involved in other relevant international forums about article 3, paragraph 7, of the Convention and the Almaty Guidelines;

(b) Provide access to information and enable public participation at the national level regarding international forums;

(c) Promote the principles of the Convention in the procedures of other international forums and in the work programmes, projects, decisions, instruments and other substantive outputs of those forums;

10. Encourages individual Parties to explore innovative ways to promote public participation in international forums at the national and international levels, including learning centres and twinning activities between two or more individual Parties, to evaluate those practices' effectiveness, and to share their evaluations with other Parties;

11. Also encourages collaborative activities by groups of Parties to promote the Almaty Guidelines and the principles of the Convention in international forums whose practices do not presently reflect the Guidelines or the principles of the Convention;

12. Requests the secretariat, subject to availability of resources, to undertake the following:

(a) To provide advisory assistance to interested international forums, as appropriate;

(b) To expand the electronic compendium of case studies on promoting public participation in international forums and to inform the Working Group of the Parties on new practices developed in such forums;

(c) To continue outreach to interested international forums in a focused way, e.g., through trainings, workshops, learning centres or other platforms, and by inviting representatives of interested international forums to attend meetings of the Convention bodies, and to report to the Meeting of the Parties and the Working Group of the Parties about needs for future work;

13. Invites therefore Parties, Signatories and international and other organizations to allocate funds for the activities on promoting the application of the principles of the Convention in international forums at all levels;

14. Welcomes the offer of France to continue to lead the work on promoting the application of the principles of the Convention in international forums.
