- Essential for own products (e.g. maps, year books...)
- Done via EGs (e.g. questionnaires, data bases...)
- In some instances, direct reporting to EU from ICPDR (saves resources & avoids duplication)
- Mostly, data remains property of contracting parties

Thank you!

The screenshot shows the ICPDR website homepage. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the ICPDR logo and the text "Light version" and "Full version". Below the navigation bar is a large banner image of a river with trees. The main content area is divided into three columns. The left column features a "Home" link and a section titled "Public Participation Schedule WFD & EFD" with a photo of a person writing in a notebook. The middle column features a section titled "2013 International Year of Water Cooperation" with a colorful "2013" graphic and a photo of a group of people. The right column features a "Welcome to the ICPDR website!" section with a photo of Ms. Ermina Salkičević and a "Danube Watch Magazine" section with a photo of a magazine cover. A decorative fish graphic is overlaid on the right side of the page.

Public Participation Schedule WFD & EFD

Vienna, 19 Dec 2012. According to Art. 14 of the Water Framework Directive, public participation in drafting River Basin Management Plans needs to be ensured. The ICPDR now provides a blue print for Public Participation activities for the development of the 2nd Danube River Basin Management Plan (2nd DRBMP) until 2015 and the Danube River Basin Flood Risk Management Plan (1st FRMP).
