

High-level Seminar on Harmonisation of Poverty Statistics in CIS Countries

Sochi, 31 October – 2 November 2016

Session 4: Improving comparability of household surveys in CIS countries

Presenter: Elena Frolova, Russian Federal State Statistics Service

Development of quality and poverty measurement methodology during transition to new data sources: experience and challenges

Development of quality and poverty measurement methodology during transition to new data sources: experience and challenges.

- Historical background;
- New opportunities;
- Broadening the range of statistical indicators;
- Ensuring interconnection and consistent dynamics during transition to new data sources;
- Peculiar features of Russian statistics;
- Set of indicators for deprivation index evaluation: unification under conditions of significant interregional differentiation.