

Work on poverty and inequality statistics under the Conference of European Statisticians

Vania Etropolska

UNECE Statistical Division

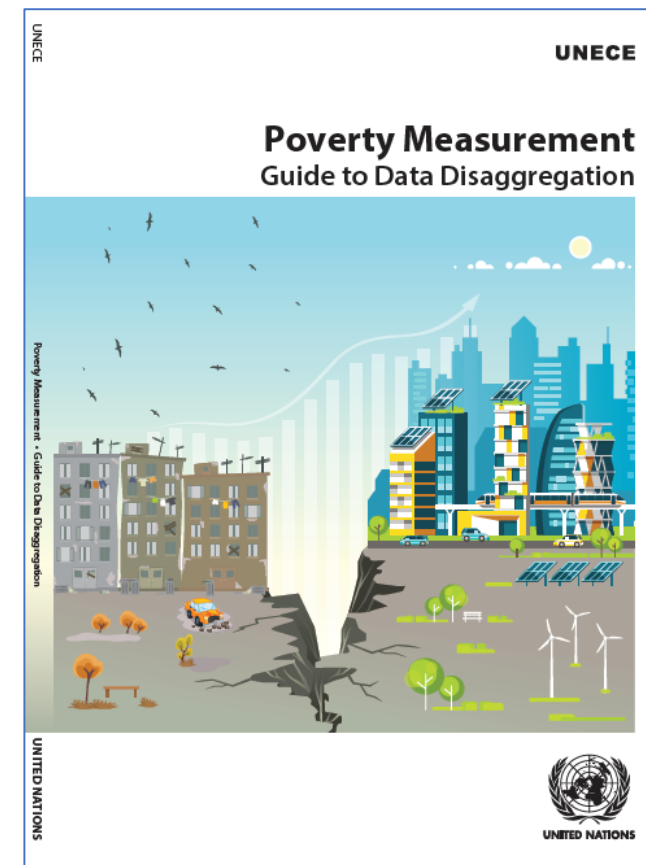

UNECE Online Expert Meetings on Measuring Poverty and Inequality, 2-4 December 2020

Poverty Measurement: Guide to Data Disaggregation

- Country consultation took place in March-April 2020
- Endorsed by the 68th plenary session of the Conference of European Statisticians in June 2020
- UNECE Secretariat is processing the publication

UNECE Task Force on Measuring Social Exclusion

- Presentation today by Dawn Snape (UK)
- Methodological document “Approaches to Measuring Social Exclusion”
 - Further examples and sharing of good practices, e.g. on groups at risk of multiple disadvantage. Inputs by countries welcome !
 - Extending the inventory of data availability on social exclusion to all UNECE countries (Chapter 7) Inputs by countries welcome !
- Next: Country consultation in Spring 2021

Poverty statistics and the Covid pandemic

- Presentation yesterday by Rafkat Hasanov (UNECE consultant)
- UNECE Harmonised survey module for poverty measurement
<https://statswiki.unece.org/display/HSQ/Harmonized+Survey+Module+for+Poverty+Measurement>
- Next: Further work on adaptation of the survey module to the pandemic and supporting the countries in their statistical response to the pandemic

UNECE wiki page on statistical response to Covid-19

<https://statswiki.unece.org/display/COV/Home>

Share your Covid-related activities in the area of poverty statistics

COVID-19 and official statistics

PAGE TREE

- Support for managing the crisis
- Social and demographic statistics
- Economic statistics
- Cross-cutting and managerial issues
- Related initiatives

Social and demographic statistics

Created by Malgorzata Cwiek, last modified by Vania Etropolska on 02 Sep, 2020

Home Support for managing the crisis Social and demographic statistics Economic statistics Cross-cutting and managerial issues

Related initiatives

Ongoing and upcoming activities

Country experiences

Share your experience

Resources

- Recommendations for publishing official statistics based on household surveys in the face of the coronavirus pandemic (ECLAC, in Spanish)

Space tools <<

Ongoing activities

2021 UNECE Expert meeting on measuring poverty and inequality

30 November 2021 – Workshop

1-2 December 2021 – Expert meeting

CES work on poverty statistics

- Methodological documents
- Poverty statistics and the Covid pandemic
- Preparation of the 2021 Expert meeting (30 Nov – 2 Dec 2021)

Comments?

Suggestions?