

UNITED NATIONS
ECONOMIC COMMISSION FOR EUROPE
 CONFERENCE OF EUROPEAN STATISTICIANS

Updated 6 October 2020

TIMETABLE

Online meetings on gender statistics

- 12 October, 09:00-12:00 CEST (focus on Eastern Europe, the Caucasus & Central Asia)
- 13-14 October 2020, 14:00-17:00 CEST (Geneva time)

Exact timings subject to change

Gender Statistics in Countries of Eastern Europe, the Caucasus, and Central Asia
Monday 12 October
09:00 - 09:10	Opening and introduction
	Opening Andres Vikat, UNECE
	Housekeeping & instructions for interaction on online platform Kristen Jeffers, UNECE
09:10 - 10:30	Gender, entrepreneurship and trade
	Why do we need gender statistics for trade policymaking? Simonetta Zarrilli, UNCTAD
	Measuring gender equality in trade using official statistics of EECCA countries Henri Luomaranta, UNCTAD
	Mentimeter Poll: Experiences with statistics related to gender, trade, and entrepreneurship Kristen Jeffers, UNECE
	Gender balance in business survey 2019 Gerard Doolan, Ireland
	Gender profile of entrepreneurship and trade in the Republic of Moldova Nadejda Cojocari, Republic of Moldova
	Measuring entrepreneurship from the gender perspective in Georgia Lia Dzebisauri, Georgia

	Questions & answers facilitated by secretariat Andres Vikat, UNECE
	Discussion: way forward to measure gender & trade Anu Peltola, UNCTAD
10:30 - 10:40	Break
10:40 - 11:55	SDG indicators and their disaggregation
	Disaggregation standards for SDG indicators; publications of UN Women Ala Negruta, UN Women
	CIS-Stat: forthcoming publication Olga Remenets
	Country experience: Georgia Vasil Tsakadze
	Questions & answers facilitated by secretariat Andres Vikat, UNECE
	UNECE SDG dashboard and database Andres Vikat, UNECE
	Kazakhstan: experience in disseminating gender data for SDG monitoring Ainur Dosanova
	Questions & answers facilitated by secretariat Andres Vikat, UNECE
11:55 - 12:00	Conclusions of the meeting
	Closing of the EECCA session Andres Vikat, UNECE