ABSTRACT

Title	Communicating gender statistics in Georgia
Author Name	Lia Charekishvili
Author Organization	National Statistics Office of Georgia
Session	Communicating gender statistics
In 2019-2020, GeoStat has improved communication with users by conducting various trainings. Currently, field work of Time Use Survey is ongoing and results will be disseminated in the beginning of 2022. Geostat updated the Gender Statistics Portal with SDG indicators as well as MICS indicators. Geostat is in the process of mapping the document of Gender Statistics and preparing new edition of "Women and Men in Georgia 2020" which will contain additional analysis. In 2019, a gender assessment of the National Statistical System in Georgia was conducted with technical assistance of UN Women. Currently, the elaboration of the strategy on Gender Statistics is being conducted by the international expert hired by UN Women.
