Background & Context
Structure of Household Collection

- Approximately 100 Interviewers
- 30,000 Households per Quarter
- Initial contact on doorstep with householder
- Subsequent quarters are collected using CATI
Impact of Covid-19

• Interviewers removed from the field
• Depending on Householders to respond to letter
• No response means no opportunity to use the persuasion and marketing skills of interviewers
• Lack of initial engagement impacts across subsequent quarters
Challenge
How to reach audience remotely

• How to overcome lack of personal contact
• How to create a call to action
• How to reassure householders re legitimacy and confidentiality
• How to acknowledge difficult circumstances faced by all
Choosing the correct platforms and content types to maximise impact

• Social Media
• Traditional Media
• Text – Letters, Ads, Articles
• Visual – Images, Animations, Audio, Video
Elements of the Marketing Campaign
Objectives

• Create awareness
• Highlight legitimacy and confidentiality
• Appeal to community spirit, create call to action
• Emphasise the ease of taking part

Your Country, Your County, Your Community

- Built on previous ‘Because you told us’ campaign (run in parallel)
- Specific reference to Covid-19
- Emphasis on importance of official statistics for post crisis planning
- Help everyone by telling your story
Cork - Covid-19 is shaping all our lives. In these uncertain times we want to hear the impact this is having on you and your family. Tell us your story. If requested, participate in our Household Surveys. It will only take a short amount of your time. By helping us - we can highlight how Covid-19 is shaping your life. #COSOireland #TellUsIreland

Don’t let your voice go unheard. Covid-19 is impacting on all our lives. …… here in Sligo. The CSO needs to measure this impact. Tell us how your life is being impacted so we can produce the statistics that will help guide policy formulation and future planning post Covid-19. If requested to participate - tell us your story. Our Household Surveys will only take a small amount of your time and is very important. … See more

What we now know

• Multiple platforms using consistent messaging are most effective
• Digital Marketing is cheaper, easier to target and easier to measure impact
• Lifespan of campaigns is 6/8 weeks max. Need to change it up after that
• Campaigns need to be sustained to grow brand awareness
• Crisis campaigns will work better from the foundation of ongoing awareness campaigns
