

Workshop on Statistical Data Collection 'Resourceful Data Acquisition'

10-12 October 2018, Geneva, Switzerland

9 October 2018

DAY 1 – Wednesday 10 October

| | |
|--------------|---|
| 08:30 | Opening of the Registration |
| 09:30 | Welcome and opening remarks UNECE Taeke Gjaltema (UNECE) |
| 09:40 | Opening presentation: Centralizing data collection implementation: the Istat experience Pasquale Papa (Istat, Italy) |
| 10:10 | Session 1: Modernise Data Collection Infrastructures Session Organizers: Frances Comerford (Central Statistical Office, Ireland) & Ian O'Sullivan (Office for National Statistics, United Kingdom) |
| | Online household diary in Hungarian Household Budget Survey. Magic kit or mistake Éva Ménesi (Central Statistical Office, Hungary) |
| | A Case Management System for Social Surveys based on the Business Process Model and Notation (BPMN) standard: Implementation and experiences at Statistics Austria Josef Kytir (Statistics Austria) |
| 10:50 | Coffee Break |
| 11:10 | Transition to the CATI Method at CPI Household Rental Prices Survey Zübeyir Özçelik (Turkish Statistical Institute) |
| | Specification and immediate visualization of a questionnaire, a metadata approach for a mixed-mode data collection infrastructure Benoît Werquin (Insee, France) |
| | CAPI-STIS: Integrated Digitalized Data Collection Software System for Official Statistics Survey Takdir Takdir (Politeknik Statistika STIS, Statistics Indonesia) |
| | Challenges for survey design in a centralized data collection framework Maria Clelia Romano (Istat, Italy) |
| | Question to the Presenters |
| 12:30 | Lunch Break |
| 14:00 | Session 2: Innovative Survey Design Session Organizers: Lise Rivais (Statistics Canada) & Britta Gauckler (Eurostat) |
| | Orchard survey, 2017 in Hungary -Transforming respondents to users and increase the intensity of cooperation Ágnes Patay (Central Statistical Office, Hungary) |
| | Seeds of Innovation at the Central Bureau of Statistics in Israel Data Collection using a Tablet Computer Alice Baron (Central Bureau of Statistics, Israel) |
| | Compilation Method of the "Wholesale Services Price Index" in Japan Kenichi Sakura (Bank of Japan) |
| | The effect of response measures in business surveys Ger Snijkers & Margreet Geurden-Slis (Statistics Netherlands) |
| 15:20 | Coffee Break |
| 15:40 | Small group discussions |
| 16:15 | Discussion Outcome |
| 16:30 | Closing Day 1 |

Workshop on Statistical Data Collection 'Resourceful Data Acquisition'

10-12 October 2018, Geneva, Switzerland

DAY 2 – Thursday 11 October

| | |
|--------------|---|
| 09:30 | Opening Day 2 and recap Day 1 |
| 09:40 | Opening Presentation: Integrated data for Population and Household statistics – ONS's plans for whole system change Ian O' Sullivan (ONS, United Kingdom) |
| 10:10 | Interactive session (3): Facing our challenges Session Organizers: Steering Committee Facilitator: Ian O'Sullivan (Office for National Statistics, United Kingdom) |
| 10:20 | Survey on Challenges and Solutions Salome Studer (UNECE) |
| 10:30 | Coffee Break |
| 10:50 | Invited short presentations |
| 11:10 | Vote with your feet |
| 11:40 | Plenary discussion |
| 12:00 | Lunch Break |
| 13:30 | Session 4: Capabilities and management Session Organizers: Barteld Braaksma (Statistics Netherlands) & Paulo Saraiva dos Santos (Statistics Portugal) |
| | Standardized and integrated processes: communication with respondents and training of the interviewers networks Sara Demofonti (Istat, Italy) |
| | System of composite indicators of the economic activity of Serbia (VIPAS) in short-term forecasting of GDP Goran Katic (Statistics Serbia) |
| | Towards Response Burden Management across surveys Anita Vaasen-Otten & Margreet Geurden-Slis (Statistics Netherlands) |
| | Reshaping management of the household surveys in the Hungarian Central Statistical Office Ádám Baric & András Borbély (Central Statistical Office, Hungary) |
| 14:50 | Coffee Break |
| 15:10 | Agility in practice – options and limitations in applying SCRUM Karen Blanke (Destatis - Federal Statistical Office Germany) |
| | Question to the Presenters |
| 15:30 | Small group discussions |
| 16:05 | Discussion Outcome |
| 16:20 | Closing Day 2 |

Workshop on Statistical Data Collection 'Resourceful Data Acquisition'

10-12 October 2018, Geneva, Switzerland

DAY 3 – Friday 12 October

| | |
|-------|--|
| 09:30 | Opening Day 3 and recap Day 2 |
| | Session 5: Optimize data acquisition Session Organizers: Britta Gauckler (Eurostat) & Bilal Kurban (Turkish Statistical Institute) |
| | Adaptive data collection at Statistics Netherlands with an application to the Health Survey Kees van Berkel (Statistics Netherlands) |
| | Fostering modern and innovative data collection methods in several U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics business surveys Kenneth W. Robertson (U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics) |
| | The actions taken to enable the administrative records to be used by subject matter units, the difficulties experienced and the proposed solutions in Turkstat Zübeyir Özçelik (Turkish Statistical Institute) |
| | Use of administrative VAT data for the short-term turnover estimates in Bosnia and Herzegovina Fahir Kanlic (Agency for statistics of Bosnia and Herzegovina) |
| 10:50 | Coffee Break |
| 11:10 | Business Data Collection: From questionnaires to data sets Paulo Saraiva (Statistics Portugal) |
| | Questions to the Presenters |
| 11:30 | Plenary discussion future work session 5 |
| 11:40 | Session Chairs summary of challenges |
| 12:00 | Soapbox presentations |
| 12:15 | Voting |
| 12:30 | Conclusions and Recommendations |
| 12:40 | Closing of Workshop |

SOCIAL AGENDA:

10 October, 19.00 - Subscription dinner at Restaurant Les 5 Portes (registration required)