Programme for the workshop:

Mobilizing Wood Resources

Can Europe's Forests Satisfy the Increasing Demand for Raw Material and Energy under Sustainable Forest Management?

Thursday, 11 January: Presentations and Discussion

Chairperson: Mr Bernard de Galembert (CEPI)

Room: Salle XI

Welcome by   Michael Gautschi (Swiss Federal Office for the Environment), Kit Prins (UNECE/FAO), Hitkoiro Katsuhisa (FAO), Piotr Borkowski (MCPFE, LUW) and Bernard de Galembert (CEPI)	Room: S	alle XI
Mobilizing wood resources - What's the big deal?   Prof. Sten Nilsson. Deputy Director, International Institute for Applied Systems Analysis (IIASA), Austria     09:40-10:05	09:00 - 09:15	Michael Gautschi (Swiss Federal Office for the Environment), Kit Prins (UNECE/FAO),
Prof. Sten Nilsson, Deputy Director, International Institute for Applied Systems Analysis (IIASA), Austria  09:40-10:05  EU policies influencing the use and mobilization of wood, including for energy purpose Joint presentation by EU: Jeremy Wall (DG Enterprise) and Ignacio Seoane (DG Agri)  10:05-10:30  Discussion  Coffee Break Procedures for the second day (working groups) Presentations and Discussion: Case studies on Mobilizing Wood Resources  Mobilizing Wood Resources in Countries in Transition – Slovenian Example Jurij Begus, Slovenia Forest Service  11:20-11:20  Mobilizing wood in Russia in the light of the new forest code Maria Palenova, Agency of Forestry, Ministry of Natural Resources of the Russian Federation Mobilizing Wood Resources in Mediterranean Countries Iñaki Isasi Pérez, Executive President, Union des Sylviculteurs du Sud de l'Europe, USSE  12:00-12:30  Discussion  12:30-14:00  Lunch Break Presentations and Discussion: Strategies  14:00-14:20  Focus on the future - Mobilizing Wood: Industry Viewpoints Elisabet Salander Björklund, Senior Executive Vice President, Stora Enso Forest Products  Strategies for Supply of Raw Material in the Energy Industry Michael Deutmeyer, CEO, CHOREN Biomass GmbH, Germany  14:40-15:00  Wood Supply Chain in Södra, today and tomorrow Christer Segersteen, Vice Chairman of Södra Wood Products, Sweden  15:00-15:30  Discussion  15:30-16:00  Coffee Break Presentations and Discussion: Existing approaches and Impacts  Increased Wood Mobilization - a Forest Owner's Point of View Stefan Schenker, President of the CEPF  Regional approach for wood mobilization in North Rhine-Westphalia, Germany Josef Herkendell, Ministry of the Environment, North Rhine-Westphalia, Germany  Interaction and Conflicts in Wood Supply and Policy Measures - Experience from Vienna-Simmering and other ÖBf supplied CHPs Winfried Stiss, Austrian Federal Forest AG (ÖBf AG)  Increased Wood Mobilization Kain Wessman, Policy Manager, WWF international  Discussion		Presentations and Discussion: Background
Joint presentation by EU: Jeremy Wall (DG Enterprise) and Ignacio Seoane (DG Agri) 10:30-10:35  Coffee Break  Procedures for the second day (working groups)  Presentations and Discussion: Case studies on Mobilizing Wood Resources 11:00-11:20  Mobilizing Wood Resources in Countries in Transition – Slovenian Example Jurij Begus, Slovenia Forest Service  Mobilizing wood in Russia in the light of the new forest code Maria Palenova, Agency of Forestry, Ministry of Natural Resources of the Russian Federation 11:40-12:00  Mobilizing Wood Resources in Mediterranean Countries Iñaki Isasi Pérez, Executive President, Union des Sylviculteurs du Sud de l'Europe, USSE 12:00-12:30  Discussion 12:30-14:00  Lunch Break  Presentations and Discussion: Strategies 14:00-14:20  Focus on the future - Mobilizing Wood: Industry Viewpoints Elisabet Salander Björklund, Senior Executive Vice President, Stora Enso Forest Products 14:20-14:40  Strategies for Supply of Raw Material in the Energy Industry Michael Deutmeyer, CEO, CHOREN Biomass GmbH, Germany 14:40-15:00  Wood Supply Chain in Södra, today and tomorrow Christer Segersteen, Vice Chairman of Södra Wood Products, Sweden 15:00-15:30  Discussion 15:30-16:00  Coffee Break  Presentations and Discussion: Existing approaches and Impacts Increased Wood Mobilization - a Forest Owner's Point of View Stefan Schenker, President of the CEPF Regional approach for wood mobilization in North Rhine-Westphalia, Germany Josef Herkendell, Ministry of the Environment, North Rhine-Westphalia, Germany Interaction and Conflicts in Wood Supply and Policy Measures - Experience from Vienna-Simmering and other ÖBf supplied CHPs Winfried Süss, Austrian Federal Forest AG (ÖBf AG)  17:00-17:20  Environmental Impacts of Increased Wood Mobilization Karin Wessman, Policy Manager, WWF international Discussion  Evening reception in the Château de Crest (near Geneva) Departure of the bus at 18:45, Place de Nation (next to the Palais)	09:15-09:40	Prof. Sten Nilsson, Deputy Director, International Institute for Applied Systems Analysis
10:30-10:55 Coffee Break Procedures for the second day (working groups) Presentations and Discussion: Case studies on Mobilizing Wood Resources  11:00-11:20 Mobilizing Wood Resources in Countries in Transition – Slovenian Example Jurij Begus, Slovenia Forest Service  11:20-11:40 Mobilizing wood in Russia in the light of the new forest code Maria Palenova, Agency of Forestry, Ministry of Natural Resources of the Russian Federation  11:40-12:00 Mobilizing Wood Resources in Mediterranean Countries Iñaki Isasi Pérez, Executive President, Union des Sylviculteurs du Sud de l'Europe, USSE  12:00-12:30 Discussion  12:30-14:00 Lunch Break Presentations and Discussion: Strategies  14:00-14:20 Focus on the future - Mobilizing Wood: Industry Viewpoints Elisabet Salander Björklund, Senior Executive Vice President, Stora Enso Forest Products  14:20-14:40 Strategies for Supply of Raw Material in the Energy Industry Michael Deutmeyer, CEO, CHOREN Biomass GmbH, Germany  14:40-15:00 Wood Supply Chain in Södra, today and tomorrow Christer Segersteen, Vice Chairman of Södra Wood Products, Sweden  15:00-15:30 Discussion  15:30-16:00 Coffee Break Presentations and Discussion: Existing approaches and Impacts  16:00-16:20 Increased Wood Mobilization - a Forest Owner's Point of View Stefan Schenker, President of the CEPF  16:20-16:40 Regional approach for wood mobilization in North Rhine-Westphalia, Germany Josef Herkendell, Ministry of the Environment, North Rhine-Westphalia, Germany Josef Herkendell, Ministry of the Environment, North Rhine-Westphalia, Germany Interaction and Conflicts in Wood Supply and Policy Measures - Experience from Vienna-Simmering and other Ößf supplied CHPs Winfried Süss, Austrian Federal Forest AG (Ößf AG)  17:00-17:20 Environmental Impacts of Increased Wood Mobilization Karin Wessman, Policy Manager, WWF international  Discussion  Evening reception in the Château de Crest (near Geneva) Departure of the bus at 18:45, Place de Nation (next to the Palais)	09:40 - 10:05
Procedures for the second day (working groups) Presentations and Discussion: Case studies on Mobilizing Wood Resources  11:00-11:20 Mobilizing Wood Resources in Countries in Transition – Slovenian Example Jurij Begus. Slovenia Forest Service  11:20-11:40 Mobilizing wood in Russia in the light of the new forest code Maria Palenova, Agency of Forestry, Ministry of Natural Resources of the Russian Federation Mobilizing Wood Resources in Mediterranean Countries Iñaki Isaai Pérez, Executive President, Union des Sylviculteurs du Sud de l'Europe, USSE  12:00-12:30 Discussion  12:30-14:00 Lunch Break Presentations and Discussion: Strategies  14:00-14:20 Focus on the future - Mobilizing Wood: Industry Viewpoints Elisabet Salander Björklund, Senior Executive Vice President, Stora Enso Forest Products  14:20-14:40 Strategies for Supply of Raw Material in the Energy Industry Michael Deutmeyer, CEO, CHOREN Biomass GmbH, Germany  14:40-15:00 Wood Supply Chain in Södra, today and tomorrow Christer Segersteen, Vice Chairman of Södra Wood Products, Sweden  15:00-15:30 Discussion  15:30-16:00 Coffee Break Presentations and Discussion: Existing approaches and Impacts  16:40-16:40 Regional approach for wood mobilization in North Rhine-Westphalia, Germany Josef Herkendell, Ministry of the Environment, North Rhine-Westphalia, Germany Interaction and Conflicts in Wood Supply and Policy Measures - Experience from Vienna-Simmering and other ÖBf supplied CHPs Winfried Süss, Austrian Federal Forest AG (ÖBf AG)  17:00-17:20 Environmental Impacts of Increased Wood Mobilization Karin Wessman, Policy Manager, WWF international  Discussion  Evening reception in the Château de Crest (near Geneva) Departure of the bus at 18:45, Place de Nation (next to the Palais)	10:05 - 10:30	Discussion
11:00 - 11:20  Mobilizing Wood Resources in Countries in Transition – Slovenian Example Jurij Begus, Slovenia Forest Service  11:20 - 11:40  Mobilizing wood in Russia in the light of the new forest code Maria Palenova, Agency of Forestry, Ministry of Natural Resources of the Russian Federation  Mobilizing Wood Resources in Mediterranean Countries Iñaki Isasi Pérez, Executive President, Union des Sylviculteurs du Sud de l'Europe, USSE  12:00 - 12:30  Discussion  12:30 - 14:00  Lunch Break  Presentations and Discussion: Strategies  14:00 - 14:20  Focus on the future - Mobilizing Wood: Industry Viewpoints Elisabet Salander Björklund, Senior Executive Vice President, Stora Enso Forest Products  14:20 - 14:40  Strategies for Supply of Raw Material in the Energy Industry Michael Deutmeyer, CEO, CHOREN Biomass GmbH, Germany  14:40 - 15:00  Wood Supply Chain in Södra, today and tomorrow Christer Segersteen, Vice Chairman of Södra Wood Products, Sweden  15:00 - 15:30  Discussion  15:30 - 16:00  Coffee Break  Presentations and Discussion: Existing approaches and Impacts  16:00 - 16:20  Increased Wood Mobilization - a Forest Owner's Point of View Stefan Schenker, President of the CEPF  16:20 - 16:40  Regional approach for wood mobilization in North Rhine-Westphalia, Germany Josef Herkendell, Ministry of the Environment, North Rhine-Westphalia, Germany Josef Herkendell, Ministry of the Environment, North Rhine-Westphalia, Germany Interaction and Conflicts in Wood Supply and Policy Measures - Experience from Vienna-Simmering and other ÖBf supplied CHPs Winfried Süss, Austrian Federal Forest AG (ÖBf AG)  17:00 - 17:20  Environmental Impacts of Increased Wood Mobilization Karin Wessman, Policy Manager, WWF international  Discussion  Evening reception in the Château de Crest (near Geneva) Departure of the bus at 18:45, Place de Nation (next to the Palais)	10:30 - 10:55	Coffee Break
11:00-11:20 Mobilizing Wood Resources in Countries in Transition – Stovenian Example Jurij Begus, Slovenia Forest Service  11:20-11:40 Mobilizing wood in Russia in the light of the new forest code Maria Palenova, Agency of Forestry, Ministry of Natural Resources of the Russian Federation  11:40-12:00 Mobilizing Wood Resources in Mediterranean Countries Iñaki Isasi Pérez, Executive President, Union des Sylviculteurs du Sud de l'Europe, USSE  12:00-12:30 Discussion Lunch Break Presentations and Discussion: Strategies  14:00-14:20 Focus on the future - Mobilizing Wood: Industry Viewpoints Elisabet Salander Björklund, Senior Executive Vice President, Stora Enso Forest Products  14:20-14:40 Strategies for Supply of Raw Material in the Energy Industry Michael Deutmeyer, CFO, CHOREN Biomass GmbH, Germany  14:40-15:00 Wood Supply Chain in Södra, today and tomorrow Christer Segersteen, Vice Chairman of Södra Wood Products, Sweden  15:00-15:30 Discussion  15:30-16:00 Coffee Break Presentations and Discussion: Existing approaches and Impacts  16:00-16:20 Increased Wood Mobilization - a Forest Owner's Point of View Stefan Schenker, President of the CEPF  16:20-16:40 Regional approach for wood mobilization in North Rhine-Westphalia, Germany Josef Herkendell, Ministry of the Environment, North Rhine-Westphalia, Germany Interaction and Conflicts in Wood Supply and Policy Measures - Experience from Vienna-Simmering and other ÖBf supplied CHPs Winfried Süss, Austrian Federal Forest AG (ÖBf AG)  17:00-17:20 Environmental Impacts of Increased Wood Mobilization Karin Wessman, Policy Manager, WWF international Discussion  Evening reception in the Château de Crest (near Geneva) Departure of the bus at 18:45, Place de Nation (next to the Palais)		Procedures for the second day (working groups)
11:20-11:40   Mobilizing wood in Russia in the light of the new forest code Maria Palenova, Agency of Forestry, Ministry of Natural Resources of the Russian Federation		Presentations and Discussion: Case studies on Mobilizing Wood Resources
Maria Palenova, Agency of Forestry, Ministry of Natural Resources of the Russian Federation  Mobilizing Wood Resources in Mediterranean Countries Inaki Isasi Pérez, Executive President, Union des Sylviculteurs du Sud de l'Europe, USSE  12:00-12:30 Discussion  12:30-14:00 Lunch Break  Presentations and Discussion: Strategies  14:00-14:20 Focus on the future - Mobilizing Wood: Industry Viewpoints Elisabet Salander Björklund, Senior Executive Vice President, Stora Enso Forest Products  14:20-14:40 Strategies for Supply of Raw Material in the Energy Industry Michael Deutmeyer, CEO, CHOREN Biomass GmbH, Germany  14:40-15:00 Wood Supply Chain in Södra, today and tomorrow Christer Segersteen, Vice Chairman of Södra Wood Products, Sweden  15:00-15:30 Discussion  15:30-16:00 Coffee Break  Presentations and Discussion: Existing approaches and Impacts  16:00-16:20 Increased Wood Mobilization - a Forest Owner's Point of View Stefan Schenker, President of the CEPF  16:20-16:40 Regional approach for wood mobilization in North Rhine-Westphalia, Germany Josef Herkendell, Ministry of the Environment, North Rhine-Westphalia, Germany Interaction and Conflicts in Wood Supply and Policy Measures - Experience from Vienna-Simmering and other ÖBf supplied CHPs Winfried Süss, Austrian Federal Forest AG (ÖBf AG)  17:20-18:00 Discussion  Evening reception in the Château de Crest (near Geneva) Departure of the bus at 18:45, Place de Nation (next to the Palais)	11:00 - 11:20	·
