

Reference: C.N.526.2014.TREATIES-XI.B.19 (Depositary Notification)

CONVENTION ON ROAD TRAFFIC
VIENNA, 8 NOVEMBER 1968

VIET NAM: ACCESSION

The Secretary-General of the United Nations, acting in his capacity as depositary, communicates the following:

The above action was effected on 20 August 2014, with:

Reservation (Original: English)

“Pursuant to Article 54, paragraph 1 of the Convention, the Socialist Republic of Viet Nam declares that it does not consider itself bound by Article 52 of the Convention.”

Notification (Original: English)

“Pursuant to Article 45, paragraph 4 of the Convention, the Socialist Republic of Viet Nam has selected VN as the distinguishing sign for display in international traffic on vehicles registered by it, of which the specifications are in accordance with Annex 3 to the Convention.”

The Convention will enter into force for Viet Nam on 20 August 2015 in accordance with its article 47 (2) which reads as follows:

"For each State ratifying or acceding to this Convention after the deposit of the fifteenth instrument of ratification or accession, the Convention shall enter into force twelve months after the date of deposit by such State of its instrument of ratification or accession".

20 August 2014

