Intergovernmental Agreement on International Road Transport along the Asian Highway Network

- Signed by China, Mongolia and the Russian Federation on 8 December 2016 during the third session of the Ministerial Conference on Transport held on 5-9 December 2016 in Moscow, Russian Federation.
- Under the agreement, each party will grant carriers of the other two parties the right to undertake international road transport on their respective national territories along Asian Highway routes 3 and 4.
- Once it enters into force, the Agreement will be open for accession by other countries of the Asian Highway Network.
- The Commission, at its 73rd session (May 2017), recognized this agreement as an important initiative to operationalize the AH Network and adopted resolution 73/4, which encourages all Parties to the Intergovernmental Agreement on the AH Network to consider accession to the Intergovernmental Agreement on International Road Transport along the AH Network.

The Database of Agreements on International Road Transport

- The Database of Agreements on International Road Transport was developed by ESCAP Transport Division.
- It has over 200 documents, including bilateral agreements and other legal instruments on or related to international road transport, and selected multilateral agreements having provisions on international road carriage.
- The texts of the bilateral and multilateral agreements in the database were collected by the secretariat from different sources like ESCAP member countries, international organizations and Government agencies
- SPECA countries are invited to access the database, review the information for accuracy and encouraged to send updates on the agreements when they appear so allowing the secretariat to include them in the database. The database can be accessed under the following web link:
