

Comments by Georgia

With regard to a rapid response mechanism dealing with cases related to the article 3(8) of the Aarhus Convention, we consider it will be reasonable to develop a new draft decision based on the draft note and the comments received on it. We think that it will facilitate the work for its further clarifications and specifications.