Comparison between the rules of procedure of the Inland Transport Committee and those of the Working Party

Note by the secretariat∗

Introduction

1. At its 108th session, the Working Party requested the secretariat to prepare a comparison between the rules of procedure of the Inland Transport Committee (ITC) and those of the Working Party as regards the rules governing participation at the sessions and the adoption of amendments.

2. The corresponding rules are reproduced and commented in the following table.

∗ A/75/6 (Sect.20), para 20.51.
Item | Participation | Rule 1 (a) ECE member States participate at the ITC sessions as full members with voting rights.
(b) Non-ECE Member States have the right to participate as full members to the segments of the ITC session that deal with legal instruments to which they are contracting parties and remain in a consultative capacity in other parts.
(c) States that do not fall under subparagraphs (a) and (b) may participate in the ITC sessions in a consultative capacity.
(d) Specialized agencies, intergovernmental organizations and non-governmental organizations in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council, may, in accordance with paragraphs 12 and 13 of the Terms of Reference of the Economic Commission for Europe ("ECE" or "the Commission"), participate in a consultative capacity in the Committee in discussions that the Committee may hold on any matter of particular concern to those agencies or organizations.
(e) Non-governmental organizations not in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council may, subject to the approval of the Committee and respecting the principles set forth in Economic and Social Council resolution 1996/31, parts I and II, participate with consultative status in discussions.
| Rule 1 (a) Member countries of ECE shall be considered full participants of WP.15.
(b) Non-member countries of ECE as defined in paragraph 11 of the Terms of Reference of ECE may participate in a consultative capacity in WP.15 on any matter of particular concern to them. These countries may however participate as full members at sessions of WP.15 devoted to matters relating to a legal instrument to which they are Contracting Parties.
(c) Specialized agencies, intergovernmental organizations and non-governmental organizations in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council, may, in accordance with paragraphs 12 and 13 of the Terms of Reference of ECE, participate in a consultative capacity in WP.15 in discussions that WP.15 may hold on any matter of particular concern to those agencies or organizations.
(d) Non-governmental organizations not in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council may, subject to the approval of WP.15 and respecting the principles set forth in Economic and Social Council resolution 1996/31, parts I and II, participate with consultative status in discussions that the Economic and Social Council resolution 1996/31, parts I and II, participate with consultative status in discussions.
| Comments | Rule 34 of ECE/TRANS/WP.15/190/Add.1 indicates that full participants have one vote.
Paragraph (b) refers to “any Member of the United Nations not a member of the Commission” in both cases.
All parties to ADR may participate in WP.15 as full members, with voting rights, including non UNECE countries which are parties to ADR; those which are not parties may also participate but as observers, i.e. without voting rights.
Paragraph (c) of the ITC would allow States which are not Member of the United Nations to participate in the ITC sessions in a consultative capacity. Countries which are neither United Nations’ Member States nor Contracting Parties to ADR are not entitled to participate in the meetings of WP.15.
Rule 9
Each full member, as defined in rule 1, shall be represented on the Committee by an accredited representative.

Rule 10
A representative may be accompanied to the sessions of the Committee by alternate representatives, advisers and experts and, when absent, he or she may be replaced by an alternate representative.

Rule 11
(a) Each full member shall submit the names of a representative, alternate representatives and experts to the secretariat at the latest one week before the opening of the session.

(b) The secretariat shall prepare a provisional list of persons scheduled to participate with consultative status in discussions that the Committee may hold on any matter of interest to these organizations.

(f) Consultations with specialized agencies and the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA) shall be conducted in accordance with Rule 51 of the Rules of Procedure of ECE.

(g) Consultations with non-governmental organizations shall be conducted in accordance with Rules 52 and 53 of the Rules of Procedure of ECE. Non-governmental organizations with consultative status under paragraph (d) shall be treated as non-governmental organizations included on the list.

Rule 9
Each participant as defined in Rule 1 shall be represented at sessions of WP.15 by an accredited representative.

Rule 10
The representative may be accompanied by alternate representatives, advisers or experts. If absent, a representative may be replaced by an alternate representative.

Rule 11
(a) The names of representatives, alternate representatives, advisers and experts shall be submitted to the ECE secretariat at the latest one week before the opening of the session.

(b) The secretariat shall prepare a provisional list of persons scheduled to participate with consultative status in discussions that the Committee may hold on any matter of interest to these organizations.

(e) Consultations with specialized agencies and the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA) shall be conducted in accordance with Rule 51 of the Rules of Procedure of ECE.

(f) Consultations with non-governmental organizations shall be conducted in accordance with Rules 52 and 53 of the Rules of Procedure of ECE. Non-governmental organizations with consultative status under paragraph (d) shall be treated as non-governmental organizations included on the list.

The difference is shown in bold.
(b) The secretariat shall prepare a provisional list of above-mentioned persons scheduled to attend the session and make it available to the permanent missions and permanent observer missions to the United Nations Office at Geneva two working days before the opening of the session.

(c) The secretariat shall prepare a list of the names of all persons attending the session and make it available to them at the end of the session.

Quorum and voting

Rule 25

The Chair may declare a meeting open and permit the debate to proceed when at least one third of the members of the Committee are present. The presence of one third of ECE member States shall be required for any decision to be taken.

Rule 35

Decisions of WP.15 shall chiefly be taken by consensus. In the absence of consensus, decisions shall be taken by a majority of the full participants present and voting. Decisions regarding a legal instrument in force shall be taken only in the presence of at least one third of the Contracting Parties, and on condition that the number of affirmative votes is equal to at least one third of the full participants represented during the vote.

WP.15 does not have a quorum for opening the session, but Rule 35 of its Rules of Procedures gives a quorum for decision making.

Way of voting

Rule 38

(a) The Committee may vote by show of hands. If any representative requests a roll call, a roll call shall be taken in the English alphabetical order of the names of the full members.

(b) When the Committee votes by mechanical means, a non-recorded vote shall replace a vote by show of hands and a recorded vote shall replace a roll-

Rule 36

WP.15 shall normally vote by show of hands. If any representative requests a roll call, a roll call shall be taken in the English alphabetical order of the names of the members.

The Rules of Procedures of the Working Party could be updated to include more details on the way to conduct and record roll calls and to include the possibility of votes by mechanical means.
call. A representative may request a recorded vote. In the case of a recorded vote, the Committee shall, unless a representative requests otherwise, dispense with the procedure of calling out the names of the full members.

(c) The vote of each full member in a roll-call or a recorded vote shall be inserted in the record.
