Dear Consultee

I am writing to apologise for the data breach of February 3rd in which your e-mail details were used by Mr Alexander Fischbaum on 2 occasions at 16.36 and 20.47.

We are investigating how Mr Fischbaum has obtained personal e-mail addresses of people invited to the first virtual consultation event on the Burroughs and Middlesex University SPD that took place on January 21st and how such breaches can be avoided in future.

We have asked Mr Fischbaum to delete your contact details. He is yet to confirm that he has taken this action. If he is in contact with you again please let me know.

Once again I apologise for the inconvenience and distress caused by this data breach.

Regards

Nick Lynch
