

Safe and efficient management of water supply and sanitation systems

Jelka Appelman

The Netherlands/ Ministry of Infrastructure and Water management

Jelena Vicanovic

Bosnia and Herzegovina/ Focal point for the Protocol

Harold van den Berg

The Netherlands/ National Institute of Health and the Environment

Working Group on Water and Health

Geneva & online, 14-15 April 2021

Protocol on Water and Health

1. Main achievements since 2020

Regional sanitation policy brief

- Initial scope and content defined
 - brief overview of sanitation situation in the Region
 - sanitation-related disease
 - emerging and future challenges
 - priorities for policy action
- Eawag Department of Sanitation, Swiss Federal Institute of Aquatic Science and Technology provides technical support

WSP and SSP integration in rural areas

- In cooperation with PA4, developed a proposal for iWSSP in Serbia
- Technical facilitation by RIVM, Netherlands and supported by lead Parties and WHO secretariat

Global workshop on improving climate resilience

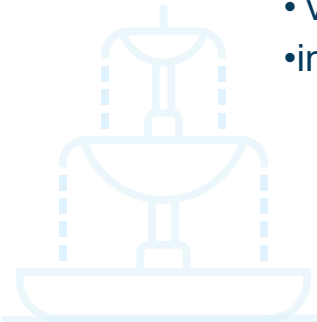

- Improve water management and sanitation at national and transboundary level
- In cooperation with PA7

2. Lessons learnt for future work

*Building back/building forward better from the pandemic

- Subregional /national capacity-building events are on hold or postponed
- Different modalities are being explored:
 - virtual sessions during the pandemic period
 - in-person trainings when the situation allows

3. Plans for future work in this area

Thankyou for your attention!

