Re: Ratheniska Timahoe and Spink (RTS) Substation Action Group and Environmental Action Alliance Ireland v An Bord Pleanála and EirGrid plc,

High Court Record No. 2014/340 JR

Dear Sirs,

I refer to the above and to your correspondence with this office of even date.

I confirm that EirGrid will not seek its costs of the proceedings, incurred up to and including tomorrow's date, as against the Applicants. My client reserves its position in relation to any future costs which EirGrid may be caused to incur after tomorrow's date, such as the costs in respect of any unmeritorious application for a certificate for leave to appeal.

Yours faithfully,

Deirdre Nagle
Senior Solicitor
