Introduction

1. The sixty-ninth meeting of the Compliance Committee under the Convention on Access to Information, Public Participation in Decision-making and Access to Justice in Environmental Matters (Aarhus Convention) was held from 25-29 January 2021. In the light of the exceptional situation related to the ongoing coronavirus disease (COVID-19) pandemic, both the Committee and participants participated in the meeting virtually.

A. Attendance

2. Four of the nine Committee members were present throughout the entire meeting: Mr. Jonas Ebbesson (Chair); Mr. Peter Oliver; Mr. Dmytro Skrylnikov and Mr. Alexander Kodjabashev (Vice-Chair). Mr. Jerzy Jendroška was unable to attend the open session on 25 January, and the meeting on 29 January but was present for the rest of the meeting; Mr. Marc Clément was unable to attend the afternoon sessions on 26 January and on 29 January, but was present for the rest of the meeting. Ms. Áine Ryall (Vice-Chair) was unable to attend the open session on 25 January and the afternoon session on 26 January but was present for the rest of the meeting. Ms. Heghine Grigoryan was unable to attend the meeting on 28 and 29 January. Ms. Fruzsina Bögös was present only at the afternoon session on 26 January. Members having declared a conflict of interest with respect to particular cases did not participate in closed sessions deliberating on those cases.

3. The communicant and representatives of the Parties concerned of communication PRE/ACCC/C/2020/184 (United Kingdom and European Union) took part in the open sessions on preliminary admissibility on 25 and 29 January.

4. Representatives of Belarus, Ireland, Italy and Slovenia took part in the open sessions on the review of any developments in relation to communications and submissions and on the review of any developments in relation to decisions of the Meeting of the Parties on compliance. Representatives of Belarus, and representatives of Portugal on behalf of the Presidency of the Council of the European Union, participated in all open sessions.

5. Representatives of Earthjustice, on behalf of the European ECO-Forum, and ClientEarth participated in all or most of the open sessions. Mr. Rikard Andersson, a member of the public, also participated in the open session on 25 January 2021.

B. Organizational matters

6. The Chair of the Compliance Committee, Mr. Ebbesson, opened the meeting.

7. The Committee adopted its agenda as set out in document ECE/MP.PP/C.1/2021/1.

8. The Chair reported that, since its sixty-eighth meeting (23-27 November 2020), the Committee had held four virtual meetings, on 3 and 17 December 2020 and on 8 and 12 January 2021..

9. Regarding communications received before 14 December 2020 (the deadline for receipt of communications for the sixty-ninth meeting), the Chair reported that he and Vice-Chairs Mr. Kodjabashev and Ms. Ryall had held a virtual meeting on 22 December 2020 to determine which of the communications received by the deadline sufficiently met the required format to be forwarded to the Committee for consideration as to their preliminary admissibility. The Chair and Vice-Chairs had decided that communication PRE/ACCC/C/2020/184 (United Kingdom and European Union) should be forwarded to the Committee for consideration of preliminary admissibility at its sixty-ninth meeting and had requested the secretariat to post that communication on the Committee's website in advance of the meeting.

57. Regarding communication ACCC/C/2019/174 (Sweden), the Committee agreed that it would decide how to proceed with the communication at an upcoming meeting.

58. Concerning communication ACCC/C/2020/177 (Bosnia and Herzegovina), the Committee noted that it had agreed to ask the Party concerned to expand its response to the communication and to clarify whether it challenged the admissibility of the communication and to thereafter invite the communicant to comment on the reply of the Party concerned.

59. With respect to communication ACCC/C/2020/178 (Germany), the Committee noted that it had agreed to invite the communicant to comment on the submissions on admissibility made by the Party concerned in its response to the communication dated 13 August 2020 and to decide how to proceed with the communication at an upcoming meeting, taking into account the information received from both parties.

60. Regarding communication ACCC/C/2020/179 (Serbia), the Committee agreed that it would decide how to proceed with the communication at an upcoming meeting.

61. Concerning communication ACCC/C/2020/181 (Netherlands), the secretariat had forwarded the communication to the Party concerned on 4 December 2020 for its response. The deadline of 4 May 2021 for its response had not yet expired and the Party's response had not yet been received.

62. With respect to communication ACCC/C/2020/182 (Belarus), the secretariat had forwarded the communication to the Party concerned on 4 December 2020 for its response. The deadline of 4 May 2021 for its response had not yet expired and the Party's response had not yet been received.

63. Regarding communication ACCC/C/2020/183 (Spain), the secretariat had forwarded the communication to the Party concerned on 3 December 2020 for its response. The deadline of 3 May 2021 for its response had not yet expired and the Party's response had not yet been received.

64. Communication ACCC/C/2020/184 (United Kingdom and European Union) had been submitted on 30 October 2020 by Ms. Christine Gibson, a member of the public. The communication alleged violation of the Convention by the United Kingdom and the European Union with respect to access to information, public participation in decision-making and access to justice in environmental matters in Northern Ireland, as part of the United Kingdom. On 12 January 2021, the communicant submitted the written version of her oral statement for the open session on preliminary admissibility to be held during the Committee's sixty ninth meeting. On 22 January 2021, the United Kingdom submitted a statement commenting on the preliminary admissibility of the communication. On 24 January 2021, the communicant submitted an update to her communication and also comments on the statement of the Party concerned. On 25 January 2021, the European Union submitted its comments on the preliminary admissibility of the communication. On 26 January 2021, the communicant submitted her comments on the European Union's comments. During the meeting, the Committee heard the views of the United Kingdom, the European Union and the communicant. After considering in closed session the information received, the Committee determined the communication to be inadmissible. In delivering its determination of inadmissibility in open session during the final session of its sixty-ninth meeting, the Committee noted that the communication made more than 25 allegations, most of them very sweeping and unsubstantiated, with respect to access to information, public participation in decision-making and access to justice in environmental matters in Northern Ireland. The Committee determined the allegations contained in the communication to be inadmissible on the following grounds:

(a) Allegations A, B, C, D, E, F, G, H, I, J, K, L, M, N, Q, T-U, Y, Z and AA were not supported by corroborating information as required by paragraph 19 of the annex to decision I/7. These allegations were accordingly inadmissible under paragraph 20(d) of the annex to decision I/7 for being incompatible with the provisions of decision I/7.

(b) Allegations O, P, R, S, V, W, X were inadmissible under paragraph 20(d) of the annex to decision I/7 for being incompatible with the provisions of the Convention.

III. Reporting requirements

65. The Committee noted that the Meeting of the Parties, at its sixth session (Budva, Montenegro, 11–14 September 2017), had urged Parties that had not yet submitted their national implementation reports — i.e., Armenia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, the Netherlands, North Macedonia, the Republic of Moldova, Ukraine and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland— to do so in the required format by 1 November 2017 at the latest (ECE/MP.PP/2017/2, para. 46). Notwithstanding that, none of the above-mentioned Parties had submitted their national implementation reports to the secretariat by 1 November 2017. The secretariat reported that the Republic of Moldova was the only Party that had not submitted its report.

IV. Follow-up on specific cases of non-compliance

66. The Committee took note of the developments since its sixty-eighth meeting with respect to decisions VI/8a–e and g–k of the Meeting of the Parties, as well as regarding the follow-up procedure concerning the Committee's findings and recommendations on communications ACCC/C/2014/104 (Netherlands) and ACCC/C/2014/107 (Ireland).

70. With respect to decision VI/8d (Bulgaria), the Committee noted that there had been no developments since the Committee's sixty-eighth meeting.
71. Regarding decision VI/8e (Czechia), the Committee noted that there had been no developments since the Committee's sixty-eighth meeting.
72. Concerning decision VI/8g (Kazakhstan), the Committee noted that there had been no developments since the Committee's sixty-eighth meeting.
73. With respect to decision VI/8h (Romania), noted that there had been no developments since the Committee's sixty-eighth meeting.
74. Regarding decision VI/8i (Slovakia), the Committee noted that on 1 January 2021, the Party concerned had provided an update on recent legislative developments.
75. Concerning decision VI/8j (Spain), the Committee noted that on 2 December 2020 the Party concerned had submitted comments on the comments of the communicant of communication ACCC/C/2009/36 dated 5 November 2020. On 4 December 2020, the communicant of communication ACCC/C/2009/36 had in turn submitted its comments on the Party concerned's comments. On 21 December 2020, the Party concerned had submitted additional comments on the comments of the communicant of communication ACCC/C/2009/36. The Committee agreed that it would take into account the comments received in the preparation of its report to the seventh session of the Meeting of the Parties on the implementation of decision IV/8j.
76. With respect to decision VI/8k (United Kingdom), the Committee noted that there had been no developments since the Committee's sixty-eighth meeting.
77. Concerning the follow-up on its findings on communication ACCC/C/2014/104 (Netherlands), the Committee noted that there had been no developments since the Committee's sixty-eighth meeting.
78. With respect to the follow-up on its findings on communication ACCC/C/2014/107 (Ireland), the Committee noted that there had been no developments since its sixty-eighth meeting.

V. Programme of work and calendar of meetings

79. The Committee noted that it had agreed to hold its seventieth meeting from 12 to 16 April 2021 and that, in the light of the ongoing pandemic, the meeting would be held virtually. The Committee also agreed to schedule virtual meetings at an increased frequency in the coming months in order to hasten the completion of findings on pending cases in order that the findings may be transmitted to the seventh session of the Meeting of the Parties for endorsement.

VI. Other business

A. Modus operandi

80. The Chair expressed his appreciation for the proactive efforts made by the secretariat both before and throughout the meeting to enable the meeting to proceed smoothly despite the logistical challenges caused by the on-going pandemic.

B. Other matters

81. The Chair reported that on 10 December 2020 he had participated in the Second Meeting of the Signatory Countries to the Regional Agreement on Access to Information, Public Participation in Decision-making and Access to Justice in Environmental Matters in Latin America and the Caribbean (Escazu Agreement) (online, 9-10 December 2020). His participation had included speaking in a panel on the establishment of a compliance and implementation mechanism for the Escazu Agreement, which was to enter into force on Earth Day, 22 April 2021.

82. The Chair further reported that on 15 January 2021 he had participated in a panel on the Aarhus Convention and Nuclear (ACN) European Roundtable on Radioactive Waste Management (online, 13-15 January 2021) organized by the European Commission and Nuclear Transparency Watch.

VII. Report and closure of the meeting

83. The Committee agreed to adopt its report through its electronic decision-making procedure after the meeting. The Chair then officially closed the sixty-ninth meeting.
