

Selected substantive issues examined by the Committee
in its findings and advice adopted since MOP6

- Article 2(2) - Acting in a judicial capacity
  - C128 (European Union)
- Article 3(9) – Discrimination
  - C96 (European Union)
- Article 4(1), (2) and (7) – “Threshold jurisdictional issues”
  - C141 (Ireland)
- Article 4(2) – Applicant to be informed of need for extension of time
  - C96 (European Union)
- Article 4(4)(d) – Commercial confidentiality
  - C96 (European Union)
- Article 6(4) – Early public participation when all options open
  - C104 (Netherlands)
- Article 6(7) – Public hearings during COVID-19 pandemic
  - A2 (Kazakhstan)
- Article 6(10) – Lifetime extension of nuclear power plants
  - C104 (Netherlands)
- Article 6(10) – Reconsideration and update of permit conditions
  - C104 (Netherlands)
  - C107 (Ireland)
  - C121 (European Union)
  - C122 (Spain)
- Article 7 in conjunction with article 6(2) – Identification and notification of the public
  - C96 (European Union)
- Article 7 in conjunction with article 6(4) – Early public participation when all options open
  - C96 (European Union)
  - C100 (United Kingdom)
- Article 7 in conjunction with article 6(8) – Taking due account
  - C96 (European Union)
- Article 7 – Necessary information to the public, transparent and fair framework
  - C96 (European Union)
  - C100 (United Kingdom)

- Article 9(1) – Expeditious review of information requests
    - C96 (European Union)
    - C141 (Ireland)

  - Article 9(3) – Criteria for standing
    - C135 (France)
    - M3 (European Union)

  - Article 9(3) – Act or omission
    - C128 (European Union)
    - M3 (European Union)

  - Article 9(3) – Contravenes national law relating to the environment
    - C128 (European Union)

  - Article 9(4) – Timely review procedures for access to information requests
    - C141 (Ireland)

  - Article 9(4) – Adequate and effective remedies for access to information requests
    - C141 (Ireland)
-