

Developments in the Global Programme of Migration Statistics

María Isabel Cobos

United Nations Statistics Division

cobos@un.org

Update on progress in 2021

- * Official report and background documents
- * Side event on revised conceptual framework and definitions
  - * Feedback received
  - * Renewed mandate

Endorsed by UN Statistical Commission, 2021

- * Document on topics and indicators on international migration and migrants
  - * Document on data sources
- * Technical report on macro and micro data integration

Broad agreement on 6 main policy themes

Next steps, UNSD and partners

GOALS

Finalizing set of core topics and indicators as guidance for countries

Continuing to operationalize conceptual framework

Enhance capacity building

Better connect policy with data issues
Improve quality and availability of data

Next steps, UNSD and partners

IFMS

3rd International Forum on Migration

Statistics - Autumn 2022

Preliminary topics:

- monitoring SDGs and GCM and GCR objectives
- new approaches, methodologies and innovations
- Covid-19 & data on migrants and migration
- strengthening statistical capacities and financing
- data communication, visualization and public opinion
- migrants in vulnerable situations, including climate-induced displacements

Send us your suggestions and join us!

Statistical Commission Reporting programmed for 2025

- submission of complete revision of recommendations for endorsement