

Georges Francis MOUTLEN

GPAC Executive Secretary
SCADTC Executive Secretary
General Manager of CDS

More than 20 years of experience in various sectors of the economy including education, business support, consumer products, air transport, railway transport, port handling, customs transit.

Executive secretary of GPAC which is a trade union defending the interests of stevedores members in Cameroon with more than 70% of traffic.

Executive secretary of SCADTC which is the largest union of customs brokers in Cameroon with more than 80% of customs declarations.

Managing Director of CDS the largest dockworkers company with 80% stevedoring market.

Member and committee leader in various exchange structures and consultation structures bringing together the public and the private sector in the foreign trade sector.

Member and head of commission of National Trade Facilitation Committee (NTFC) since 2016, date of its creation.